WEDDINGS.

Andrews-Clark

Special to The Standard St. Stephen, N. B., Jan. 1—An international wedding of interest was solemnized here at high noon today, in which the principals were Miss Gladys I. Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
L. W. Clark, and Mr. Chas. L. Andrews, superintendent of machinery for the Chance Lumber Company at Baring, Maine. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride on Elm street in the presence of relatives and close friends. Rev. W. C. Goucher, D.D., pastor of the Union Street Baptist Church, being the officiating clergyman. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion, the general color scheme being white and green, and in the dining room white and pink. The wedding march was played by Miss Winnifred Clark, sister of the bride. The couple were unattended. The bride was very charming in a costume of white satin with Georgette and silver lace trimmings and a white veil caught with orange blossoms.

Following the ceremony luncheon was served by Mrs. Guy Clark, Miss Rennie Hanson and Miss Ethel Wooster of Grand Manan, with Mrs. James Stickney, pouring. Later the bride changed her dress for a travelling suit of blue tulle with hat to match and taupe wolf fur and the happy couple left on the afternoon train on the Maine Central for a brief trip. On their return they will reside at Baring.
Very many beautiful gifts testified to the esteem in which the young couple are deservedly held, the groom's gift to his bride being a string of pearls.
