CHATHAM.

Chatham, N. B., Nov. 18.—(Special)—The installation of his Lordship Bishop Barry into the charge of the diocese of Chatham took place in the pro-cathedral this morning.

As the procession in which were Rev. Father Pelletier, Varsity, O'Leary, Whelan, Somner, Parson, McKay, Jomer and the new bishop, entered the church, the choir sang the Te Deum.

The installation service was read by Rev. Father Joyner. Mass was then celebrated by Bishop Barry, after which he eloquently addressed the congregation.

He spoke of the great reluctance with which he had consented to undertake the work and asked the people for their prayers and help. He expressed pleasure that Bishop Rogers was able to be present, and expressed his hope that he would be able to do so during the 42 years he had been bishop of the diocese of Chatham.

At the close of the address the new bishop from the throne blessed the clergy, the retiring bishop being the first to receive the blessing. The procession then formed in the same order as it entered the church and proceeded to the residence, the bishop blessing the congregation while passing down the aisle.

There was a large number present and the service was most impressive.

FATHER, AGED 93, BRUTALLY BEATEN BY DRUNKEN SON.

Samuel Buchanan, aged 93 years, was severely beaten by his son, Frederick, Wednesday afternoon in their home, King street, West End, Fredericton, who is 68 years of age, has been arrested by Sergeant Ross, who enters the following charge on the police books against the prisoner: "Arrested on suspicion of beating his father, Samuel Buchanan, 93 years of age, by kicking him and throwing him on the floor. Drinking liquor and dangerous."

It appears that the prisoner, who is a fisherman, gets intoxicated, and when in that condition acts very badly. Wednesday afternoon he went home in an intoxicated condition and two neighbors, W. Clark and James Lord, hearing cries for help entered the Buchanan house and found the enraged son standing over his prostrate aged father kicking the old man. He was persuaded to desist from his cruel treatment and the injured man was conveyed to Mr. Lord's house near by.

The prisoner, Buchanan, is a quiet man when sober, but his record when drunk is not of the best. Some years ago, while being arrested by Sergeant Ross, he slashed the left side of the sergeant's coat with a sheath knife.

To make a formal charge against Frederick Buchanan for assault, but he was unwilling to do so. Chief Ross then reported the matter to Sergeant of Police Clark, who gave an order to have Buchanan arrested on sight.

The sergeant arrested Buchanan on Rodney wharf Thursday morning, when bringing him over to the east side the prisoner tried to bolt—do the Carleton floats but was prevented by the sergeant from doing any mischief. Buchanan was locked up.

The injured father was Thursday taken charge of by another son, Samuel Buchanan, Jr., who removed him to his home and is now taking care of the old man. The father is recovering but it was thought at one time that owing to his age the beating he received would result fatally.
