The presentation will be made by Miss Driney Kingston, daughter of Bishop Kingston.

The late Dr. Dow Coburn, of this city, left an estate valued at about $70,000, the greater part of which is life insurance. Lumbermen unite in the opinion that there will not be more than sixty or seventy-five per cent of the lumber cut on the St. John River this coming winter than there was last season. There have been few if any men sent to the woods yet to prepare for the opening of operations. The first men to go down here to the upper St. John will leave on Thursday, when John A. Morrison will send in a crew. On Monday next, Harry Burns, who operates for Randolph & Baker, will leave for the upper St. John with a crew of men who will be employed at building dams and other work, until operations are commenced. Wages will not be as large this year as they were last year, and it is expected that $30 will be the wage paid.

Fredricton, N. B., Aug. 14.—There has been a big rush of tourist travel to this city the past few days and the hotels are doing a rushing business. Today's arrivals by the sea drove the highway bridge to the river. The "River" camp meetings conducted by the Reformed Baptists at Robinson (Me.) attract large numbers from this vicinity as the camp grounds are only a comparatively short drive away. There was no service in the R. B. church here on Sunday evening on account of the general attendance at the greater attraction.

J. Harvey Simonsen, a former well known farmer of this county, who went to Astorok a few years ago and who recently died, was killed by fire at a loss of $5,000, is selling his real estate and intends returning to his native country, this time trying his fortune in the northwest.

Cardinal shipments of lambs are now being made daily. They go to Houlton (Me.), to Montreal, Toronto and St. John; and lambs that are grown and growing, sold for $2 bring $5 today. Local butchers ask 17 cents for lamb in the quarter. The shipment of live hogs is not up to the average of last year. The extraordinary high price of dressed pork last year has encouraged the farmers to do their own slaughtering.

Harland, N. B., Aug. 14.—Blessed with extra good weather so far this week, the farmers are getting on well with their hay crop, and contrary to what was expected, it is in good condition. It was feared that because of its standing so long it would be spoiled for market, but the wet weather has kept the grass green and growing. The first of the year, local butchers are asking 17 cents for lamb in the quarter. The shipment of live hogs is not up to the average of last year. The extraordinary high price of dressed pork last year has encouraged the farmers to do their own slaughtering.

When a short distance beyond Fredericton (N.B.) the reins became caught under the horse's tail and while the driver was endeavoring to release them the horse sprang from the carriage and escaped into the woods.

The stranger did not attempt to follow and later in the afternoon the boy came out from the woods and reported the matter to his father. The boy's name is Fred. He is a large, well built, and growing, and is a native of this county. He is now in the hands of the police.

City Marshal Roberts has been furnished with a description of the mysterious stranger but has not been able to find any trace of him.

It is probable that the rig he was driving was the one that he took to St. John. Mrs. A. A. Rideout leaves this evening for Edmonton, having been called by the serious illness of her sister, Miss Annie McConaghy.

Percy Chase, aged 24 years, died at his home at Akeleyville Corner last night from consumption.

W. E. Forbes went to Sussex on Monday.

HARTLAND

Harland, Aug. 13.—Mrs. John Brown, of Aronville, died on Friday, aged seventy-five years. She was a widow, the mother of George Brown, of Highgate, and sister of Hector McLean, of Hartland. The funeral services, conducted by Elder D. E. Brooks, were held on Sunday at the Third Baptist church.

Another transfer of real estate in the burnt district has been made. T. J. Hurley bought of G. W. Boyer a lot with 42

Headaches Mean Your Blood Is Poisoned

If your bowels, kidneys or skin are not ridding the system of waste-matter, the blood is laden with impurities, which inflame the nerves. It is these irritated nerves that make the head ache.

Powders and pills won't cure, they merely drive the nerves into a more vicious and relieve for a short time.

"Fruit-a-Lives" cure Headaches, Neuralgia and Nerve Pains because they purify the blood. They act directly on the three great eliminating organs—Bowels, Kidneys and Skin—and restore them to health.

FLORETTA WHALEY, DESERTED, A WRECK

Girl Who Eloped With the Rev. Jere Cooke in Sanitarium in Canada

Grandmother Assists Her

Victim of Unfrooked Rector of Fashionable Hempstead Church

Dependent on Charity of Relative.

New York, Aug. 13.—Miss Floretta Whaley, who eloped on April 29 with her fiancé, the Rev. Jere Cooke, rector of St. George's Episcopal church, at Hempstead (L. I.), in a sanitarium in Canada.

Cooke has deserted his seventeen-year-old victim and she is a nervous wreck. Miss Whaley belongs to a wealthy family and her grandfather, the late Jere Cooke, who has been sending her remittances for several weeks since learning that she was ill and abandoned.

While members of the family refuse to discuss the affair, it has been known by intimate friends for several days that Miss Whaley was taken to the sanitarium in Canada by her grandfather, who is himself an invalid. She is now in the hands of her grandfather, who is himself an invalid.

The World has kept its bargain for one year and a half. All obligations to maintain secrecy ended recently when Frank Rockefeller flatly denied the existence of any agreement to a representative of the World, and threatened if his interview was ever published to "brand it as a lie."

The interview with Frank Rockefeller then went on: "My father is alive and well," said Mr. Rockefeller. "He is dependent upon no man. He would scorn the proffer of financial aid from John D. and would not take it from me."

"He has means of his own, ample for all his needs. "But there is a reason why I cannot at this time tell you where he is. In a few weeks or months I will be ready to tell a story that will amaze and horrify the whole world."

No one yet knows that I am writing the story, the real history of John D.'s life. "I finished it secretly here in my office several months ago, but there were imperfections in the work and I am doing it all over again."

"Rest assured that it will be right this time. "Yes," he continued, in a bitter tone, "When I make John D.'s true life history public and explain the facts about father, this country will be too warm for his rich citizen."

"Go ask John D. where our father is; I will tell you where he is and that I dare him to answer. "But the time will soon come when I can safely speak. Then it will not be safe for John D. to appear upon the streets of any American city. He would be stoned by the people."

"Nothing but fight from the country to the foreign land will save his life when he moves monstrous truth is known." "Why not explain about your father now?" the reporter asked.

"No! No!" was the sharp reply. "I must consider the consequences certain to follow a publication of the facts. The time is not ripe. I must shield many hearts."

PLANNING TO IMPRISON JOHN D. AND HARRIMAN

Attorney General Bonaparte Will Wage Vigorous War on Heads of Law-Defying Corporations, and Roosevelt Thinks Head Officials Should Be in the Penitentiary.

Washington, Aug. 13.—John D. Rockefeller and Edward H. Harriman will stand on trial in the criminal dock if Atty-Gen. Bonaparte can put them there with the conviction that he can land them in the penitentiary.

The attorney general returned to his desk this morning after his vacation at Lenox. On his way to Washington he had stopped off at Oyster Bay and had discussed with President Roosevelt the question of the criminal prosecution of the men who are at the head of the great corporations, who have defied the law in this administration is determined to stop.

It is clear that President Roosevelt and Atty-Gen. Bonaparte are entirely agreed that the most effective way to make the corporations obey the laws is to punish the head officials by terms in the penitentiary and not merely assess fines upon the corporations.

BACK TO PROVINCE FOR A HOLIDAY

E. Medley Scovill and Charles Lee Scovill, of New York, arrived in St. John on Saturday to spend a few weeks. They came to visit their grandfather, Mr. W. E. Scovill, of Rothsay. For the greater part of the time E. M. Scovill will be the guest of Senator Downville, at Rothsay, and he, Scovill, the guest of W. H. Baxter, of Norton. The brothers Scovill, who are natives of New Brunswick, are well situated in New York. The first named is in a prominent position in the New York Times, and his brother is statistician for the well known brokerage firm of Spencer Trask & Co. They have had a few days fishing at Grassy Lake, as the guests of the Sussex Fishing Club, and are greatly enjoying their holiday. Incidentally E. M. Scovill is a former honoree regarding industrial and general conditions in the province, in his capacity as a newspaper man. He is much interested in the coal developments in Queens county and the probable effect upon the province of the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

I. O. G. T. Lodge Reorganized.

L. R. Hetherington, grand rec. I. O. G. T., re-organized the lodge at Alma Tuesday evening. Forty-two members joined. The following officers were installed: T. E. Colpitts, C. T.; Miss Mary E. Cleveland, W. T.; Rev. J. E. Shanklin, rec.; Miss Stella Shields, F. S.; Mrs. W. R. Edgett, treasurer; D. A. McQuaid, Mar.; Miss Angie Dickinson, chaplain; H. H. Keirstead, A. Sec.; Lyle Baitland, D. She understood that you camped out in the rain one night without any bedding?—Oh, no. We had plenty of bedding. The storm was a wet blanket on our pleasures, and the rain came down in sheets.—Somerville Journal.

"JOHN D. IS A MONSTER," SAYS HIS BROTHER, FRANK

(New York World.)

Herewith is given the interview with Frank Rockefeller, brother of John D., obtained by a reporter for the World, at his office in Cleveland.

"The story in McClure's Magazine about my father was outrageous," said Frank Rockefeller when the World reporter apprised him of the object of his visit. "Within forty-eight hours after its publication I was in New York city with my lawyer."

"Before I returned I had Miss Tarbell's sacred promise that she would never again write a line or a word about father. "I want the World also to leave him alone."

Mr. Rockefeller was assured that if he would consent to reveal the whereabouts of his father the story should be published in his own words.

"If I consent to give the facts to the World for publication when the right time comes, will the World agree to publish nothing until that time?"

The promise was given with an added proviso that when the time should come to publish the facts the proof sheets of the article should be submitted to Mr. Rockefeller for final approval.

These terms and conditions were reported to the World office that night and were once ratified in a letter to Mr. Rockefeller.

The World has kept its bargain for one year and a half. All obligations to maintain secrecy ended recently when Frank Rockefeller flatly denied the existence of any agreement to a representative of the World, and threatened if his interview was ever published to "brand it as a lie."
