

Week's Results Show Gain in Recruiting Among Fifteen Recruits on Saturday Six Were Americans Off Remount Steamer—Sons of Province Rallying to Call.

The recruiting record of the city of St. John for the week ending Saturday, March 4, was 65 men. The previous week the county of St. John gave but 40 men, hence the results of the new recruiting campaign inaugurated by the Citizens' Recruiting Committee in this city can readily be gleaned by the comparison. On Saturday fifteen good men and true signed the honor roll at the Germain street recruiting office. The results of recruiting in this city last week, day by day, were as follows: Monday, 46; Tuesday, 65; Wednesday, 45; Thursday, 57; Friday, 5, and Saturday, 15. Total for week, 65.

After having visited England on a transport ship, the nine United States citizens of the great war at first hand, no less than 200,000 of the United States took the oath of allegiance to His Majesty King George on Saturday and enlisted for overseas service here with a Canadian unit.

- Those who signed the honor roll on Saturday were as follows:
- OSCAR WILLIAMS, St. Louis (Miss.)
 - CLYDE MILLER, Winston, Salem (North Carolina).
 - THOMAS D. TURNER, Hillsboro (South Carolina)
 - C. G. SULLIVAN, St. John (N.B.)
 - FRANK CUMMINGS, Upham, Kings county (N.B.)
 - FLOYD BARBER, Winston Salem (Nor. Carolina).
 - SAMUEL BARBER, Winston Salem (North Carolina).
 - EDWARD STERLING, St. John (N.B.)
 - JACK CURRIE, St. John (N.B.)
 - ROGER CHESLEY, St. John (N.B.)
 - C. BOYD, St. John (N.B.)
 - SAMUEL LEVINE, St. John (N.B.)
 - R. ROWBTON, Philadelphia.
 - IGUATE BORTNIK, Russia.
 - ALFRED GALLANT, St. John (N.B.)

Up until Friday night at Fredericton twelve men had enlisted there last week for overseas service. Two were secured on Friday. They were: John J. Borrister and G. Eldon Merrithew, both of Fredericton, who will join the 14th battalion. Merrithew is a member of the office staff of the board of education in Fredericton and will be quartermaster-sergeant of "C" company of the 140th. Five minute addresses at the moving picture theatres at Fredericton have been arranged on a similar basis as those that have been given in this city.

At Burham Bridge a recruiting meeting was held on Thursday evening addressed by Rev. Dean Neales and Captain W. H. Teed, the latter of the 140th battalion, but no volunteers were secured. Another meeting was held at the same evening at Fredericton Junction, addressed by Lieut. Col. A. G. Gaudet and Lieut. Colonel W. H. Gray, but here also no recruits offered. A big recruiting campaign will be launched today at Fredericton, which gives promise of bearing good fruit.

The following is a list of the recruits signed at the Woodstock recruiting office during the month of February: Hollis Swin, Newburg; Perley Green, Bristol; William McConnell, Upper Kingman, Dunsmuir; Kenneth Huntington, Ferry Cartwright, Hamilton; Douglas Dewey, Canterbury Station; David H. Steadman, Washington (Pa.); Vincent M. Bagnat, Newburg; George E. Morris, Northampton; Miles Stairs, Everett Stairs, James Hamilton, J. Norman Tompkins, James Hall, Charles Harrington, Borden Vantas; T. Miller, Fredericton; Paul L. Kelso, W. H. Butler, James McDougall, Woodstock; Kenneth Bell, Jack Bell, Walter Soloway, Fielding; John C. Price, Hartfield (N.C.); Hilbert, Fredericton; Roy Hayward, Jacksonville; Borden McCullen, Hartland; Henry L. Giberson, Herbert, West; Roy, Edmund; Tarr Sabatus (C.); B. W. Wetmore, Sussex; John Tracy, A. Cor, Centreville; Wm. Stewart, Frank McCormack, James A. Harris, Woodstock; Solomon Bear, Broton (Miss.); Charles Miller, Florenceville; Hastings Godwin, Peel, George Cusack, Nelson; S. Nichols, Frank McKinley, St. John; Gustav V. Tremblay, New Denmark; C. W. Rowley, Leslie Biggan, Glenora; Bord Kilcollins, Solomon; David Henry Giberson, Otis Giberson, Wicklow.

The following recruits were signed for the 16th French-Canadian Battalion at Moncton on Friday last: Abraham Benson, J. E. Farnham, G. H. Barbour, Edouard Blaine, Joseph Hector, Moncton, and Alfred G. Pelletier, Lewisville.

Official Orders Received.

Official orders were received on Saturday by Capt. L. P. D. Tilley, chief recruiting officer for the province of New Brunswick, acquainting him of the fact that this province had been created a separate recruiting district and was hereafter not under the jurisdiction of the province of Nova Scotia in the matter of recruiting.

Miss Lois Gimmier, daughter of Hon. W. C. H. Gimmier, judge of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, has volunteered for services at the front as a chauffeur. The application blanks have been signed in due form and forwarded to Ottawa, and Miss Gimmier is anxiously awaiting word in reply.

Everyone who knows Miss Gimmier, or who has seen her handling her father's big car around the city streets, will be ready to admit her qualifications for the work, and the authorities at the front would be fortunate if they could secure such a competent, as well as so charming a chauffeur.

Whether or not a girl would be accepted for this arduous service is another question, and Miss Gimmier's application is that the reply to her application will be favorable. She is eager to get to the front, however, and stoutly maintains that she will not be afraid to undertake the work if she is given the opportunity.

Come Home to Enlist.

J. A. Campbell, brother of Wm. Campbell, proprietor of the Depot Cafe, Sussex, recently threw up a lucrative position in Boston and came to Sussex and enlisted as a private in the 104th Battalion, believing it was his duty as a loyal Canadian to get into the King's uniform. Private Campbell served six years, at the home of his daughter, Miss Milton MacCready. The death of his brother, G. Douglas MacCready, formerly of West St. John, in Calgary on Feb. 28, 1915, was a great loss to the family. He was a son of the late John MacCready, formerly of this city, who was killed at the front on Oct. 1, 1914, while on duty with the 10th Battalion. Since then his family has been in mourning for the bereaved family.

John Montgomery.

Friday, March 4.

John Montgomery received word yesterday from his mother in New York, telling him of the death of his brother, G. Douglas MacCready.
