

CITY, Town, or Village Incorporated,—no part of can be included in any Incorporated Township although within the boundaries, for any purposes of this Act.—sec. 17, p. 20.

CITIES of Hamilton, Kingston and Toronto, incorporated and powers of other Towns when proclaimed as Cities.—sec. 82, p. 62.

One Alderman and two Councillors for each Ward to be elected by resident freeholders and householders on the Collector's Roll—the Common Council to be formed of such Aldermen and Councillors, and the Mayor to be elected from Aldermen—property qualification of Aldermen—of Councillors—of Electors.—sec. 83, p. 63.

Incorporated to be Counties of themselves for municipal and judicial purposes provided for specially in Act, but for no other.—sec. 85, p. 64.

Justice of the Peace for County to have no jurisdiction as such in City—but Quarter Sessions for County may be held in City, and endorsements of Warrants have the same effect as heretofore.—sec. 86, p. 64.

Upon Town becoming a City all Commissions of the Peace for Town cease and determine.—sec. 87, p. 65.

A High Bailiff in addition to Chief Constable to be appointed annually by City Corporation.—sec. 88, p. 65.

Corporation may erect portions of liberties into outer Wards, and vary the boundaries from time to time.—sec. 89, p. 65.—And may annex outer Ward to City in certain circumstances.—sec. 90, p. 65.—Annexed Ward no longer part of the liberties.—sec. 91, p. 66.—When Charter Officers for such Ward shall be elected—Ibid.—Present Gaol, &c., to continue.—sec. 92, p. 66.—A Recorder's Court to be established in every City.—sec. 93, p. 66.—And to hold four Sessions annually.—sec. 94, p. 67.—Exemption of inhabitants from serving on Juries excepting &c.—sec. 95, p. 67.—Grand and Petit Jurors to be summoned by High Bailiff.—sec. 96, and 97, p. 67.—Who may be such Jurors.—Power and authority of Grand Juries.—secs. 98 and 99, p. 68.—Powers of such Courts. sec. 100, p. 68.

Powers of City Council to be the same as are exercised by Town Council.—sec. 106, p. 70.

Enumeration of purposes for which City Council may make By-Laws.—sec. 107, pp. 70 and 71.

Mayor shall be Head of City Corporation.—sec. 108, p. 71.

CLERK, for Town, City, Township, or Village to be appointed by Corporation and paid by tax levied on the whole rateable property.—sec. 169, p. 92. To keep records of proceedings, &c.—sec. 170, p. 92.—duration of his office.—sec. 173, p. 93.