

Proviso.

and the Trustees may enter into any equitable arrangement with any person living between two Gates, or close to any Gate, as to any exemption from or reduction of tolls in his favour at any Gate or Gates, which they may deem right to prevent injustice or hardship ; Provided also, that any person living between the Montmorency Bridge and any Turnpike Gate on the Beauport Road at which Tolls shall be levied for passing the said Bridge, shall not be liable to Toll on passing the said Gate ; and the exemption from Toll under this section shall include all carriages, animals and things belonging to the persons so exempted.

Loan for rebuilding the Montmorency Bridge.

VIII. The North Shore Trustees are hereby empowered to borrow a sum not exceeding four thousand five hundred pounds currency, for the purpose of repairing the Bridge over the River Montmorency or building a new one, and to issue Debentures for the sum so borrowed, the principal and interest whereof shall be payable out of and be the first charge upon the Tolls and Revenues of the said Bridge, after the payment hereinafter mentioned to the minor children of Ignace Côté and Magdeleine Blouin.

Further loan may be raised by North Shore Trustees.

IX. The said North Shore Trustees are hereby empowered to borrow a sum not exceeding five thousand five hundred pounds, currency, for the purpose of paying Charles Rhéaume the sum due to him, and the interest due in July, 1857, on Debentures heretofore issued by the Trustees of the Quebec Turnpike Roads, and other expenses incurred or to be incurred by them ; but the Debentures to be issued under this section shall have no preference over any Debentures issued by the Quebec Turnpike Road Trustees, nor shall this issue thereof affect or impair any privilege or preference attached to any former Debentures.

Provision for minor children of I. Côté and his wife.

X. The said North Shore Trustees shall, out of the Tolls and Revenues of the Montmorency Bridge, or in default thereof out of any other moneys that may come into their hands not specially appropriated by law to any other purpose, pay to each of the six minor children of Ignace Côté and Magdeleine Blouin, his wife, the sum of ten pounds yearly, from the day of the death of their said father and mother by the fall of the Montmorency Bridge, until they shall respectively attain the age of majority.

Loan to be raised by South Shore Trustees.

XI. The said South Shore Trustees are hereby empowered to borrow a sum not exceeding seven thousand pounds for the purpose of completing the Roads and improvements now actually commenced, and which will be under their control ; and to issue Debentures for the sums so borrowed, the principal and interest whereof shall be payable out of the Tolls and Revenues of the Roads and works under the control of the said Trustees, after paying the expenses of maintaining and managing the said Roads and works.
