

SESE

[Faint, illegible handwriting on the left side of the page]

32331

Newmarket,
Thursday afternoon.

Dear Mr King -

May this note follow you to say how earnestly I pray that your worst fears may not be realized. I shall think of you always through this severest trial, remembering how tender and how strong has been the attachment which has held and is holding your Mother and