Mr. J. M. Larkin,
Assistant to the President,
Bethlehem Steel Company,
Bethlehem, Pa.

Dear Mr. Larkin:

Mr. King has just discovered that your letter of the 1st instant has not been acknowledged. He asks me to send, together with his regrets for the delay, his cordial thanks for the copies of the Questions and Answers prepared in connection with the Bethlehem Plan of Representation. These were duly received some time ago.

Mr. King wishes you to know also that he appreciates your kindness in sending the information your letter contains with reference to the labor situation in the iron and steel industry.

With kind remembrances,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,

Private Secretary.
