

had in his possession, he ~~found~~ secured the consent of the immigrants to hold ~~their~~ money in trust till all were ^{properly} provided ~~with~~ ^{for} ~~their~~ ^{own} ~~requirements~~ and arranged to have a member of the consulate collect the money from each immigrant as he came off the ship. The Consul moreover, appears to have thought that the money had been put up by ~~some~~ parties in Honolulu interested in having their emigrants sent to Canada, and he openly stated that it might help to prevent like occurrences in the future if the money did not find its way back there again. } The right of a number of ~~immigrant~~ immigrants arrives dropping ^{$25.00} a piece into a sack held by an officer of the Japanese Consul was too much for some of the citizens of Vancouver, the local members of the ~~parliament~~ ^{parliament} and the city scholars each interested ^{themselves} ~~themselves~~ ^{in having} ~~to have~~ what seemed to ~~them~~ an extraordinary proceeding immediately stopped

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
Volume C 38