

- Q.24
A. Was Sergeant Campbell placed under arrest ?
Yes, he was placed under arrest .
- Q.25
A. What time ?
I couldn't swear to the time, sir.
- Q.26
A. Do you know approximately ?
Between 0800 and 0905 hours.
- Q.27
A. On that day ?
Yes, on the 11th of September.
- Q.28
A. Would you say shortly after he had refused your direct order ?
Yes.
- Q.29
A. You don't know the exact time ?
No, sir.
- Q.30
A. Do you know where Sergeant Campbell went after he had refused the direct order ?
To his quarters.
- Q.31
A. He didn't go to the squad room ?
No, sir. He didn't go to the squad room.
The Defence Counsel cross-examines.
- Q.32
A. I take it then Captain Williams, from what you said that you felt that at that time Sergeant Campbell came to you under a heavy strain ?
I was under that impression.
- Q.33
A. You know as a matter of fact his wife - it is a matter of common knowledge his wife had had a serious operation ?
That's quite true.
- Q.34
A. He has five children ?
That's quite true.
- Q.35
A. And his wife was trying to carry on with them at Fenticton ?
Yes.
- Q.36
A. I believe you also knew that Sergeant Campbell had tried to get a little extra leave to go and see her ?
That's right, sir.
- Q.37
A. And all he got was one extra day - he got five days instead of four ?
That's right, sir.
- Q.38
A. Am I right in saying that - or in suggesting that at that time there was an interval between classes ?
That is right. One week break.
- Q.39
A. He was due to come back on a Thursday ?
That is right, sir.