stole a large wooden trunk t, No 1 Platform Euston Railway ve it to Cricklewood garage I had been asked to do this by coral Leroux who are all stationed ee said to me, "Hurry up and you out of here." I know by stolen property, I would lose my Sergeant Collier, who was in charge Garage, at Dilke Street, Chelsea, gave me to understand that unless that I did not remain in London

Garage with the first trunk, Carter both climbed into the lorry and in the trunk, which we shared it contained mostly American I do not remember what name was on the Euston empty.

6 or 7 similar trunks from the American officers' clothing, shoes when I didn't visit Euston Rose, stole some wooden trunks at the garage in Cricklewood with an Rose brought in some of these

"HAY" on it, I stole - I cannot I took that to Cricklewood Gordon Rose and myself shared the the trunk over with green paint trunk from the same place with the men with the exception of Gordon and I believe Sergeant Carter all papers in the trunk, and the
