

Works by E. PHILLIPS OPPENHEIM—continued

Mr. Bernard Brown. 3s. 6d.

THE DAILY GRAPHIC says:—"Mr. E. Phillips Oppenheim has a remarkable gift of making up an exciting story."

THE ABERDEEN DAILY JOURNAL says:—"The story is rich in sensational incident and dramatic situations. It is seldom, indeed, that we meet with a novel of such power and fascination."

The Man and His Kingdom. 3s. 6d.

THE FREEMAN'S JOURNAL say: "It is high praise to say that in this novel the author has surpassed his previous thrilling and delightful stories. 'The Mysterious Mr. Sabin.' Yet that high praise is eminently deserved. The story is worthy of Merriman at his very best. It is a genuine treat for the ravenous and often disappointed novel reader."

The World's Great Snare. 3s. 6d.

THE WORLD says:—"If engrossing interest, changing episode, deep insight into human character, and bright diction are the sine qua non of a successful novel, then this book cannot but bound at once into popular favour. It is so full withal of so many dramatic incidents, thorough exciting and realistic. There is not one dull page from beginning to end."

A Monk of Cruta. 3s. 6d.

THE BOOKMAN says:—"Intensely dramatic. The book is an achievement at which the author may well be gratified."

Mysterious Mr. Sabin. 3s. 6d.

THE LITERARY WORLD says:—"As a story of incident, with a deep laid and exciting plot, this of the 'Mysterious Mr. Sabin' can hardly be surpassed."
