

NOTE

--

As the law concerning the parliamentary elections of this province is now applicable, in as much as compatible, to the election of the members of the City Council, I have considered it advisable to insert in this compilation, at their convenient place, some articles of that provincial law, as also certain provisions of other provincial laws applicable to the City of Quebec.

J. E. C.