

858 ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE

Swinburne, A. C.—continued

Biographical references, in order of time

Birth and birthplace, 4, 6; childhood, home, and early education, 9-11; Eton days, 11 et seq.; 317 et seq.; visit to Wordsworth, 15; Oxford life and friends, 28 et seq.

London life and friends, 65 et seq.; Italian tour, 67-8; literary activities, 69-70, 73 et seq.; dis-appointment in love and verses thereon, 82-3; death of Mrs. Rossetti, 84-6; life at Tudor House (q.v.), 86, 105-6; writing for the Spectator, 87 et seq.; Pyrenean visit, 97; visit to Paris, 98; epileptiform attacks begun, 98-9; stay in Cornwall, in the Isle of Wight, and in Italy, 100 et seq.; the meeting with Landor, 100 et seq.; life in rooms, 106 et seq.; visit to Cornwall, 106; publication of Atalanta in Calydon, 107-8 et seq., fame enjoyed, 119; racketing ways, 119, 122; publication of Chastelard, 122 et seq.; publication of Poems and Ballads, preliminaries, etc., 133 et seq., 142, 149 et seq.; Laus Veneris published, 141; in defence of Poems and Ballads, 156-7, 161; notoriety of, as affecting his temperament, 158 et seq.; stay in Wales, 158; the Song of Italy begun, 163; irregular life in town, 163; the poems on Italy in progress, 165 et seq.; association with the Fortnightly (q.v.), 168-9; more racketing, 170; stay at Etretat, and

Swinburne, A. C.—continued

London life—continued

Menken's poems, 171-2; Song of Italy published, 173 et seq.; Appeal to England published, 174; invitation from Reform League to enter parliament, 175; Songs before Sunrise in progress, 176, work on, as affecting his health, 177; swimming accident at Etretat, 178-9; William Blake published, 180; Selections from Coleridge published 182; change of abode, 183; an infertile period, 183-5; visit to Vichy, 184, and to Paris, 184; publication of Songs before Sunrise, 187, closing the earlier portion of his career, 188; middle years, the dispute with the Arts Club, 198; change in character, 198-9; at work on Bothwell, 201 et seq.; in Scotland with Jowett, 202; Scotch tour, 204; Tristram of Lyonesse begun, 205; the controversy on the "Fleshly School of Poetry," the poet's invective displayed in, 205; essay on John Ford, germ of blemishes in, 206; Elegy on Gautier written, 207-8; uproarious Sonnets on the death of Napoleon III., 209-10; a brush with Emerson, 210-12; cooling friendship, the solace of Jowett's friendship, 212 et seq.; eccentricities, 213-14; Watts becomes his helper, 215; Bothwell published, 216; in Cornwall and elsewhere, 219; work on Chapman published, 222; essays on Elizabethan dramatists written,