

with the Sabbath school as assistant superintendent, superintendent and honorary superintendent for over thirty-seven years. Mr. Ross has been the superintendent of our mission school, Nazareth street, for nearly forty years. These portraits are only a first instalment of those whose memories we would like to keep green. I have with considerable labour collected a large number of interesting photographs. I am very thankful to be able to make this commencement, and trust that the work may be continued till we have an adequate memorial extending up to the jubilee of the congregation.

A. B. MACKAY.