Proprietors

THE Proprietors would respectfully inform the public that these well established and popular Hotels, are now connected by a large and spacious covered Hall, and no expense has been spared in thoroughly refitting and furnishing them in the most modern style with every regard to comfort and luxury, while the management will always be unexceptionable and no pains will be spared in ministering to the comfort of guests. Both Houses are favorably situated facing and overlooking the beautiful Bay of Quinte, and River St. Lawrence. Both Hotels are within ten minutes' walk of the Banks, Post Office, Express Office, and the Steamboat landings.
