The Marvelous Record of Cures Made by Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets in Every Section of the Country is Always Backed by Home Evidence.

CHATHAM PROOF.

"For six years of more I have had a kidney trouble, with a pain in the back, that was severe, and it made it hand to get about. Some one told me of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and I got a bottle at A. I. McCall & Co.'s drug store, and can say truthfully that I think them a good medicine. They acted well with me, and also with my husband. I like them because they are quick and gen-tle in effect, and affect the bowels easvisiting the exhibition when there is no crowd it is not advisable to do so before 10 o'clock, says the Paris cor-respondent of The New York Jour-Prices of entrance in each of the enceintes (inclosures) of the exhibit-ion-i.e., at Paris and Vincennes -

In the morning, before 10 o'clock, two tickets; between 10 and 6 o'clock, one ticket; after 6 in the afternoon, two tickets, except Sundays and holidays, when the admission will be one ticket. It will be seen that by entering the exhibition after 10 one ticket is good until 6. trance tickets can be bought at from 11 to 13 cents outside the exhibition.

Strangers are advised to devote the norning to visiting places of interest in Paris and to consecrate the after noons to the exhibition. In that case the evening meal may be taken in the grounds itself and the whole evening passed there without further entrance In case visitors desire to visit a theatre, concert, etc., it would probably be best to leave the exhibition early enough to dine in the neighborhood of the place chosen to

The price of cabs 'undergoes no change during the exhibition, being 30 cents for the simple course or 40 cents by the hour. A tip of from 5 to 10 cents is always given over and above the regular price. Nearly all the bus and tram lines, either directly or by the transfer system, give access to one of the 36 entrances to the exhibition. Foreign moneys current in France are Belgain, Swiss, Austrian, Russian, Spanish, Italian and Servian gold-pieces. Five franc Italian pieces are current, but not the fractional silver currency of less value. Copper coinage of foreign countries is not in circulation. The following prices undergo a slight depreciation by exchange: German mark, value 1 frances 20 centimes, or 24 cents; English sovereign, value 25 francs, or $5; United States dollar, value 4 francs 90 centimes, or 94 cents; Dutch florin, value 2 francs, or 40 cents.

A Romantic Marriage.

The first marriage of Jefferson Davis was of a romantic character. Falling desperately in love with Sallie Taylor, daughter of Colonel Zachary Taylor, who did not approve of the attachment, the young people the attachment, the young people took matters in their own hands and eloped. Sixteen years passed before "Old Zach" would speak to his sonin-law, and then it was because he and his regiment had covered themselves with glory at the battle of Buena Vista.

People who are annoyed by flies should remember that clusters of the fragrant clover, which grows abundantly by every roadside, if hung in the room and left to dry and shed its fragrant perfume through the air, will drive away more flies than sticky saucers of molasses and other fly-traps and fly-papers can ever collect. Gas Ranges are being installed in all parts of the city. People realize that gas is the cheapest and most con-venient fuel.

"One Hour and the Next is practically my first book. Strange to say, most of the reviews have taken it as

"No; none of them was drawn from life—at least only in a way, perhaps. I did once know some one a little like Nicholas, a queer old fellow in a workhouse, who had seen better days and was always imploring me to get his letters and articles into the papers.

"To me by far the most interesting character is Robert Lester. I really did know some one very much like him who married a beautiful young wife and, just like Lester, found out too late that she had an incurable disease which would prevent their ever being happy together."

"What was really the matter with Lester's wife?"

"What was really the matter with Lester's wife?"

"Epilepsy. I sketched it lightly because the terrible blight is hidden in the background of some family histories. I couldn't dwell upon it."

The Duchess' sympathies are so entirely reserved for the faulty Lester that she has little interest left to bestow on the more worthy hero, Philip Asheton.

"I don't know why," she said, "but Lester interests me very much more than Philip Asheton, whom I do not care for at all, though I am glad to hear that other people say they find him more attractive than I. He is a bit of a prig, I think.

"Yes," she continued, "I suppose Asheton and Agnes will marry. Afterward they will be very unhappy. I did not really mean to write so gloomily, but a plot will work itself out, trustrating your best intentions. Besides, I was not very well while writing it." "Is there any truth in the story that before writing the novel you spent some time in the poor sums of Bradford?"

"There is really no truth whatever in the story. I did certainly so to Bradford recently, but as for living by myself in the slums, I never did that."

"Still, you evidently studied the pottery workers?"

"Yes. I live constantly about and among them."

"They never molest you?"

Was confined to my bed most of the time. At the time I commenced your treatment my left side was completely paralyzed. Had no desire to eat anything; bowels costive all the time. Nerves were all unstrung, so I could not bear the least noise. I also suffered from diseased ovaries and female weakness. But thanks to my Maker and you, after following your advice, I am able to do all my washing, sewing and house work in general. I haven't had a spasm in two months. Left off medicines about one month ago. Didn't think it necessary to continue them longer. I have taken about seven bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, seven of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and two vials of 'Pleasant Pellets.' I heartily recommend those medicines to all suffering as I was."

CROP OUTLOOK

In the County of Kent-It is all Right with the Exception of Wheat.

With the exception of wheat there will be a splendid yield of roots, grains and fruits in the district surrounding Chatham. Many farmers predict the heaviest yield of oats and barley in years. The waving fields of these grains certainly look nice now the stalks being thick and heavy. The wheat crop, however, will be a very show of blossoms foreshadowed. varieties are already being marketed at six cents a box.

Apples also gave promise of being in great quantity, but they have fallen off greatly, especially in young or-chards. The old orchards are showing up well and the trees are quite heav-

Vegetables will be a splendid crop this year, and all garden stuffs so far marketed have been the best shown in years. Out in Chatham township, the great potatoe growing district of Western Ontario, the tubers give promise of a glorious yield and the plants look fine. Already the early varieties have made their appearance on the market. Along the lake shore is one of the iAlong the lake shore is one of the heaviest peach growing districts in Ontario, and the trees this year are heavily laden in the vicinity of Blenheim. Towards Kingsville and Leamington, however, the crop has been badly damaged by the hail stones. The Crawford peaches are doing well and already the fruit is larger around than a man's thamb. Taken as a than a man's thamb, Taken as a whole the crop in this district will be

The bean crop will be good and heavier than in years. Owing to the high price a large number of farmers have have planted a greater acreage than usual and in addition to this beans were planted to take the place of wheat plowed up.
