WHEN THE MINISTER COMES TO TEA

Oh! they're swept the parlor carpet, and they've dusted every chair, And they've got the tidies hangin' just exactly on the square;

And the whatnots fixed up lovely, and and the munts have all been beat, And the pantry's brimmin' over with the bully things ter eat.

Sis has got her Sunday dress on and she's frizzin' up her bangs, Ma's got on her best alpecky and she's askin' how it hangs.

Pa has shaved as slick as can be, and I'm rigged way up in G, And it's all because we're goin' ter have the minister ter tea.

Oh! the table's fixed up gaudy with the gilt-edged Chiny set, And we'll use the silver tea-pot and the comp'ny spoon, you bet.

And we're goin' to have some fruitcake and some thimbleberry jam, And "riz biscuits" and some doughnuts, and some chicken and some ham.

Ma, she'll 'polergize like fury and say everything is bad,
And "sich awful luck with cookin'," she is sure she never had.

But, er course, she's only blivin', for it's as prime as it can be,
And she's only talkin' that way 'cause the minister's ter tea.

Everybody 'll be a-smilin' and as good as ever wuz, Pa won't growl about the vittles, like he generally does.

And he'll ask me would I like another piece of pie; but sho!

That, er course, is only manners, an'
I'm g'posed ter answer, "No."

Sis 'll talk about the church-work and about the Sunday school.

Ma 'll tell how she heard that sermon that was on the Golden Rule.

And if I upset my tumbler they won't say a word ter me—

Yes, a boy can eat in comfort with the minister ter tea.

Say, a minister, you'd reckon, never'd say what wasn't true!

But that isn't so with ours, and I just can prove it, too;

'Cause when Sis plays on the organ so it makes yer want ter die.

Why, he sets and says it's lovely; and that, seems ter me, 's a lie!

But I like him all the same, and I only wish he'd stay

At our house for good, and always and eat with us every day;

Only think of havin' goodies every evenin'! Jimmine!

And I'd never get 'em 'coidin' with the minister ter tea!

THE FASHIONABLE BELT.

It Plays a Distinctive Part in the Finish of My Lady's Gowns, But Aids, for Its Width.

The new belts are the most striking features about the finish of summer gowns, but also, their classic beauty must be shrouded by the stout and short-waisted. The fashionable belts are treated in numerous ways. They may be draped, tucked or plaited; or, they may be shirred, smocked or embroidered.

A width that is being used almost exclusively to trim summer gowns for slim figures reaches to the bust line.
The belt is boned at frequent intervals and supports the figure so substantially that it can be worn independent of a corset.

An afternoon dress of satin foulded in wedgewood blue has the skirt fitted close to the hips and laid in small plaits across the back. The skirt has a pointed tunic falling over a flounce of plaid black chiffon over wedgewood blue tulle.

The bodice has a belt of wedgewood blue satin foulded in solid color. It is shirred and the fastening is finished with streamers of satin ribbon half the length of the skirt. Above the belt is a very smart bolero of satin applique with old yellow lace. There is a vest of blue chiffon embroidered in silk polka dots.

The sleeves are small with Trill-trimming the wrists, and the collar is a crushed stock of satin.

THE SCIENCE OF PADDING.

A few secrets of the science of padding should be known to every woman who is without natural curves. In getting a corset that is to be padded, select one that is a little too large at the bust and hips. Arrange the padding so that the figure is symmetrical, and so that the space at the back will be narrow at the waist and broad at the bust and hips. Lace a little below the waist line if a longer figure is desired and pull the corset down so that it fits closely into the waist. A hip-padded corset that is to be padded long and come well over the hips. If these directions are rigidly observed they will also produce the perpetually craved "French" figure.

GREATER AND GRANDER
THAN EVER.

The Irish Picnic at Erieau on July 25th 1900, Will Eclipse Anything of Former Years at This Point.

If you want to enjoy a good day's outing, don't fail to come to the above picnic, at place and date given above, Erieau as a resort for boating, bathing, etc., has no equal in Western Canada, and is so well known that it is not necessary to make further mention of it here, that to say to those who have not been there, come and do not miss the treat, and the those who have been, come once again and enjoy a good day's outing, positively the last with the Irish in the 19th century.

Large steamers will be at the Eau all day, so that those who desire may enjoy short trips on the lake, and small boats galore, always on hand.
An excellent program of sports has been arranged, which will occupy the afternoon and evening. Tents will be on the ground for the convenience of visitors, and excellent service has been provided by the Railway Co., which will enable all to reach there and home again without delay.

Sadie McGill, of London, the most celebrated fancy and national dancer of Western Ontario, and singer of considerable merit, as well as John Dagan of Sarnia, also a fancy dancer, will be present to amuse the assembly in their line.

The "Bondo Troupe," a celebrated company, consisting of two ladies and two gentlemen, will give an exhibition of trapeze and acrobatic performance, juggling, etc., lasting an hour and a half. Boat racing and other aquatic sports, athletic sports, stereopticon and moving pictures will be among the attractions of the day and evening. For full particulars see posters.
Don't forget the day and date, paste it in your hat.

A FANCY BODICE

An Elaborate Afternoon Affair in Panne and Tulle for Matron or Maid.

They are combining panne and tulle in the most delightful ways in the separate bodices that have been ordered for the Newport season. This association of materials is an innovation for those who have tired of lace appliques and aspire to something not yet acquired by the many.

A fancy bodice ordered by one of the best dressed women in society is made of Roman blue tulle laid in soft folds and sleeves are of ivory cream panne figured with tiny sprays of pink geranium buds upon sprigs of leaf green.

Interpersed between the sprays are tiny dots of covetous yellow to complete the Oriental pattern which peculiarly distinguishes panne velvet.

FOR THE NEWPORT SEASON.

The yoke is entirely detachable from the bodice and the waist could easily do duty as an evening corset, dependent for its support upon the tiny bands of black panne which constitutes the erin straps. There is also a pointed Festoon belt of the black panne.

Below the yoke there is a border of Roman blue tulle laid in soft folds and sleeves are of ivory cream panne figured with tiny sprays of pink gerani-
um buds upon sprigs of leaf green.

distinguishes panne velvet.

Dizziness

Is a very common consequence of indigestion and torpid liver. Sometimes there are spots before the eyes and hot flashes. At other times a sensation as of vertigo occurs, at once suffocating and blinding. It is a waste of time to attempt to cure this condition by ordinary means or medicines. The stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition must be restored to healthy activity, the blood must be purified, the liver cleansed and strengthened, before a cure can be hoped for. This is the work done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a medicine specially beneficial in diseases of the stomach, blood and liver. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, and promotes the health of every organ of the body.

My wife was greatly troubled with indigestion, torpid liver, dizziness, and also irregular menstruation. I wrote Dr. W. A. Foster, of Bangor, Me., and he sent me a box of your Golden Medical Discovery. I tried many different remedies, but none of them gave perfect relief. I was very much induced by a lady to try your Golden Medical Discovery. I tried it, and it gave me more relief than anything I ever tried for these complaints. We have used four bottles of your Golden Medical Discovery, and we are now feeling better than we have for many months. These medicines have done the work we desired, and I do heartily recommend them to all similar sufferers.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery."

LOTION FOR TAN.

How to Enjoy Outdoor Life Without Injuring the Skin.

THE remedies employed for keeping freckles in the background are not always effective in sunburn.

Where the subject tans gradually, the skin taking on a healthy brown, through which the red glow of health shows delightfully in the cheeks, I should advise my readers not to attempt to defeat a really becoming complexion.

A summer girl is never more irresistible than when she looks brown and rosy from long days spent in the open.

It is to the unhappy matrons and girls who blister and peel and get red, swollen noses. I offer a little advice and some simple remedies. First of these is a wash which is particularly useful during the summer months in exposed situations, as, for example, at the seaside, where the skin frequently becomes irritable and much inflamed.

Formula for Lotion for Sunburn.— Milk, 1 pint; carbonate of soda, 1 oz.; glycerine, 1 oz.; powdered borax, 1/2 oz. Use several times a day if required.

An emulsion easily made and frequently successful in arresting the burning sensation produced by the sun is prepared as follows:

Sweet almonds, blanched, 1 oz.; bitter almonds, 1/2 oz.; pound the almonds to a paste in a mortar with pebble; add rose water, 8 oz.; strain through cheesecloth and add benzoin of soda, 15 grains.

An emollient poultice will work almost a miracle with a half-blistered face. The poultice must be renewed before it begins to get dry, and is composed of equal parts of rye and linseed meal, with enough warm water to make a rather thin paste. A mask is made of this same paste also and worn for several hours at a stretch. It has a wonderfully healing effect. It is indispensable that the poultice or mask should be kept moist.

A preparation called milk of roses is excellent and if used every day will keep the sunburn from ever becoming painful. Make it as follows: Blanched almonds, 1 1/2 oz.; oil of almonds and white soft soap, of each, 1 dram; rose water, 12 oz. Make an emulsion. To the strained emulsion add a mixture of essence of roses, 1/2 fluid dram; alcohol, 1/2 ounce; rose water sufficient to make the whole measure 1 pint.
More alcohol is often ordered and used, but too much of it is apt to cause a separation of the ingredients.
