The big adv. of a new clothing business, which started in Wolfville this week, occupies a prominent place on the last page of this paper.

The business is located in the Stacey-Harris Building, Main street, and is conducted by the same gentlemen who carried on business at that stand for a few weeks last winter.

Money to Loan on Mortgages of Real Estate. Apply to E. S. Crawley, Solicitor, Wolfville, N. S.

The Motto of VIM TEA, "Sold on Merit" the firm has lived up to ever since putting this brand on the market.

The VIM TEA people have never adopted any schemes in the way of prices or premiums to consumers, depending solely on merit to win and hold the confidence of Tea drinkers, nor have they been disappointed.

The pulpit of St. Andrew's church was filled on Sunday morning last by Rev. Prof. Falconer, president of the Presbyterian College, Halifax, who preached one of his characteristically able sermons.

In the evening Rev. Mr. McLeod, the clever young pastor of the Upper Canada Presbyterian church, preached very acceptably to a large congregation.

Mrs. L. W. Sleep, Supt. of Parlor Meetings.

At an early hour on Tuesday morning the old American House was discovered to be on fire. The firemen promptly responded to the call of the alarm, but before discovered the fire had made good progress and all that remained of the building was consumed very soon.

The firemen did good work in saving the outbuildings, and preventing the spread of the fire. The building was a workhouse old bulk and had long been an eyesore to all Wolfville people.

THE ACADIAN noted a few weeks ago that Mr. W. W. Robson was making some alterations in his building on Main street. These have now been completed.

An addition has been built on the west end of the building, affording a neat and convenient entrance and tasty show window. Quite a commodious hallway is provided, with a well-arranged stairway leading to the studio.

This has been considerably enlarged, and is now painted and carpeted and presents a fine appearance.

The waiting room has a large extra window, and an increased accommodation. A well equipped ladies' dressing room has been provided, which will no doubt be much appreciated by Mr. Robson's many patrons among the fair sex.

Taken together the studio is a decided credit to the town. We have no doubt but that an increased patronage will result from the enterprise of the proprietor.

The marriage of Mr. George T. Bendeler, chief of THE ACADIAN's mechanical department, and Miss H. Patrick, of Everett, Mass., took place at the home of the former in Windsor on Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Mosher, in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The happy young couple arrived in Wolfville by the evening train, and will take up their home for the present at the Royal. During his residence in Wolfville Mr. Bendeler has made many friends, who wish him and his fair bride much happiness and prosperity. Many handsome and valuable presents were received by Mrs. Bendeler.

Although Election time draws so near, our little village seems quite undisturbed. Every one interested, of course, knows just how election will turn out. Some of them, unmistakably, will be disappointed. Which ones Nov. 3rd will tell.

The appearance of snow flying in the air again reminds us of the approach of winter, although we look forward to its coming with dread, yet when the grim monster sets in its dead earnest, we enjoy it thoroughly. We will harness up Tom to a one horse sleigh and drive rapidly over the snow.

The friends of Perry Davidson, of Avenport, are glad to see him again among us. He has been for seven years in Boston, and is at present visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. D. Martin.

On Monday evening, Hallowe'en, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Benjamin were surprised by the arrival of about forty of our young people.

A very pleasant evening was spent, enjoyed in various kinds of Hallowe'en amusements. At half past eleven the party broke up.

Returning home, they made a very pretty procession, each one carrying a lighted Jack-O-Lantern.

Mrs. Freeman Coldwell returned on Friday, the 22nd, from Mass., U. S., where for the past month, she has been visiting her sisters and many friends.

Great interest is being shown in our Temperance Division at present. It has been enlarged by the addition of several new members.

The paper is now being issued, with Miss Gladys Rockwell as Editor. So far, the paper has been a marked success, and we do not doubt but that it will continue to be.

Miss Clara Martin, who is in attendance at the Truro Normal school, spent last week at her home. While here, she was a bridesmaid in the wedding which took place between her brother, Mr. Renford L. Martin, and Miss Flora L. Benjamin.

On the evening of Nov. 2, a political meeting was held in the hall. The house was packed and Dr. Borden and his party were present. The evening proved rather dry, as there was none of the opposition to get up an argument, and the meeting broke up shortly after ten.

Mr. Melvin Reid, of Berwick, spent last Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. D. D. Reid.

We are all glad to know that Melvin D. Benjamin, who has been laid up for the past month with inflammatory rheumatism, is again able to be out.

THE EXACT THING REQUIRED FOR CONSTIPATION.

"As a certain purgative and stomach purifier Chamberlain's stomach and Liver Tablets seem to be the exact thing required, strong enough for the most robust, yet mild enough and safe for children and without that gripping so common to most purgatives," says R. S. Webster & Co., Udon, Ontario, Canada, For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

J. N. Farnham,

of Scovil's Bakery, St. John, N. B., Says:--

"I have been a Baker for thirteen years and have used all kinds of Manitoba flours, but never had a flour the equal of ROYAL HOUSEHOLD for Bread, Cake and Pastry. Before using ROYAL HOUSEHOLD I always had to use soft flour to make good pastry"

To the public a few extra values we are offering in exclusive Fall Millinery. That ideal hat is surely among the many beautiful creations of millioners' art we are displaying.
