TWO PICTURES.

This is what the great Edmund Burke says of the duty of a Representative. We want Mr. Snowball and his friends to read it:—

'It is the duty of your Parliamentary representative to sacrifice his repose and his pleasures to yours, and above all, to PREFER IN ALL CASES OUR INTEREST TO HIS OWN.'

MEETING IN ROGERVILLE.

A letter from our Rogerville correspondent came to hand only yesterday, though it was written several days ago. It describes the settlement as on the high-road to prosperity, says the crops are exceeding good, and up to the date of writing had suffered nothing of the weather. He is loud in his praise of the interest the Surveyor General and Mr Davidson have shown in the welfare of the settlement and points to the liberal appropriations for new roads and for bridges.

He says the Surveyor General visited the settlement some days before, and the people at once felt they would like to have him address them on matters relating to their own interests, and the general interests as well. A meeting was therefore held, numerously attended, and Hon. Mr. Adams addressed them. Their enthusiasm was unmeasured, and very many stated in the strongest and warmest terms, what a friend of the new settlement and the struggling settlers the Surveyor General has been.

It is the fault of a public man himself if his people forget him; for that man in public life never yet has been who, having done well for his people and used all the influence he possessed to further their interests, was forgotten when the proper day came round. Look at the conduct of our two local members, and then at what our Dominion member has done, and see what a contrast they present us. The two former urging in their exertions for their people, and what they have obtained for their people standing out in proof of this. The latter selfish, and caring for nobody's interests but his own; obtaining nothing for his country, not even asking for anything. The two former are at their post when duty is to be done, the latter is out of the country when the people expect him to be at his post. It is well now and again these things should be spoken. It is well the public should know who is true to them, and who is traitor.

Now often, that the Rogerville people, and the people in other parts of the county as well, are turning in their minds who the "four men" are to be next summer, we hope our brilliant and popular lawyer, and representative Mr. L. J. Tweedie will soon pay those people a visit. We know there are few gentlemen to whom their wants and requirements are better known, but since the people are determined on Mr. Tweedie "for one" whoever else comes, then he cannot be too familiar with their condition, nor ascertain what that is, too soon.

"A DOLLAR A PLATE."

The above expression has been nothing short of a "war cry" among the Liberal party here, for several days. Some of those who occupy "higher social standing" here, visited those "not so rich in the world's goods" strongly of the opinion that they ought not to go above "a dollar a plate." There was at once a rebellion, and it seemed as if some charitable person at the head of the hunt would have to come in with a few barley loaves and fishes to feed the multitude. Another patriotic not alone thought a dollar a plate enough but too much; and standing up before several of inferior "social condition," he read the following memoranda of cost per plate:

MEAL'S MATERIAL. COST. Bread.....5 cents. Potatoes.....2 " Turnips.....10 " Meat.....10 " Salt and Pepper.....2 " Sugar in Tea.....2 " The Tea Leaf.....2 " Milk in Tea.....1 " Pie.....10 "

One of those not "rich in the world's goods" at once assured the aristocrat that his "figures" were "all astray"; and after a wrangle all along the line, the meeting broke up, like the Board of Health, without "doing anything."

The Pall Mall Gazette describes Sir Charles Gavan Duffy's address on the Land Bill as "Timely words well spoken."

A VALUABLE SQUARE MILE.

There was some very earnest bidding in the Crown Lands office in the early part of the week when a certain tract of mining land situate near Bathurst was put up for sale. An interested party in Bathurst sent over an agent, whom he supposed skilled in finance, to represent him at the sale and the other party had another representative from Chatham on the ground. It is needless to say that Mr. Samuel Adams represented by the Chatham gentleman took the land, his side paying the handsome sum of $3,350 for one square mile. We hope the investment may prove a profitable one;—that the mine,—and it is highly spoken of by geologists and mineralists—will turn out to be a very bonanza. The specimens obtained from the holes are very rich, and there seems no reason to doubt extensive and compact deposits. We hope to see Mr. Samuel Adams wear a long adieu to the West, and that he will employ his usual energy, and his knowledge of minerals,—and his capital as well—in the property he has just purchased. Not Bathurst alone, but Gloucester will be delighted to receive Mr. Adams back again.

THE ROAD TO OTTAWA.

This is how the Toronto Globe heads an article on the proposed Ontario and Quebec Railway. The final survey of this road has now been made, $1,000,000 stock has been subscribed, and 10 per cent. paid up. Of the directorate of the new road say the Globe—The directorate includes V. B. Osler, of Toronto; E. Thibodeau of Montreal; Vice-President: George Stephen, of the Canada Pacific; Donald McIntyre, of Montreal; Adam Brown of Hamilton; Hon. Peter Mitchell, of Montreal; H. S. Howland, Sr., and C. J. Campbell, of Toronto—a Board unquestionably possessed of the power to push through the road with the requisite degree of energy." We are glad to hear of the part Hon. Peter Mitchell is taking in the new enterprise.

SUPPLEMENTARY GRANT.

A correspondent living down the river informs us that through the representations of the Surveyor General and Mr. Davidson, M. P., a supplementary grant has been made by the Government to the Escomincac road. He points out what a boon the grant is, in view of the traffic along that road and the wants of the several who will benefit by the expenditure. This fact adds one to the many which go to show that in the history of this country before she has never been known to fare so well as now; and this thanks to the untiring efforts of Messrs. Davidson & Adams in her behalf.

A NEGRO TO THE FRONT.

We are delighted to announce that some members of the patrician element of the party here, have secured the services of a huge St. John negro, to conduct the most important part of the Blake reception. This negro it is understood will feed the multitude for "a dollar a plate." The agent of plet and patrician is ended.

THE COLLECTION.

After ten days the party have secured $475.50. They secured Newcastle up and down, and got "thirty odd" dollars. The balance they got—or expect to get—in and about Chatham. All the Money collected will be handed over to the St. John negro.

Sir Leonard Tilley, and Hon. Mr. Caron, and T. White, M. P., are very enthusiastically received wherever they go. They follow closely in the wake of Mr. Blake, and verily from what we read, those who laugh last laugh best.

A letter from Alwrick on the latest insult heaped upon the French people will appear in our next.

EDITORIAL CLEANINGS.

BRIGHT ON THE LAND BILL. In concluding his speech at the Lord Mayor's banquet on the 7th inst., John Bright said:—

"As to the one great question which we have been engaged upon this session, and yet to some extent how great are the fears, with regard to it. But I believe it is not possible for legislation to do a more complete act of justice to the tenant farmers of Ireland than the Government has intended, and Parliament has nearly accomplished in the bill which is now almost ready to receive the Royal assent. I have been for the last 30 years asking Parliament and the country to make certain changes with regard to the tenure of land in Ireland. I have paid great attention to the subject; I have felt upon any political question, and I am free to say that I believe that this measure is as great and as noble a measure on that question as it would be possible for the English Parliament to pass; that it is one which it is impossible, when it becomes law, that the Irish people should not discover to be a great measure of satisfaction and redemption for them, unless they are unable to understand a policy intended directly for their benefit. (Cheers.) I have said that there are fears, I have fears. After the state of things through which the Irish people have gone in so many successive periods, it is not perhaps, quite certain that all remedial measures are not too late. I will not express a strong fear that such is the case, on the contrary, I will express a strong hope that such is not the case. It may be that some would say that

(Cheers.) I have said that there are fears, I have fears. I will not express a strong fear that such is the case, on the contrary, I will express a strong hope that such is not the case. It may be that some would say that

"True reconciliation never can grow Where wounds of deadly hate have pierced so deep."

But, as generation after generation passes, governed by a monarch kindly, liberal, beneficent like ours, legislative for by a Parliament anxious to do justice to all the people under its sway, I will not doubt, I will believe, that whatever may be the passion, whatever the frenzy in the minds of the Irish people, whatever the gloom that now rests on that country, all this may pass away, and that the time will come, and come soon, when in Ireland it shall be felt as much as it is felt in England that, with all our faults, our Government does intend to do rightly by the Irish people. (Cheers.) Therefore, looking on the session now drawing to a close, terrible as has been the work, long as have been the hours and the nights of its toil, often as we have been shocked by conduct in the House that has been distasteful and distracting to us, nevertheless, I live in the hopes that men will look back to the session of 1881, and will say that if we had the greatest of statesmen to guide our affairs, in that year was passed the greatest of measures in order to bring about tranquility, peace and union in the greatest Empire on which the sun shines. (Loud cheers.)

THE OOBEN CLUB SCARED.

Under the title of "The Reciprocity Craze," the Cobden Club is about to publish a pamphlet exposing the sophisms of the protection movement, showing that the excess of imports over exports instead of being a sign of decay is rather an indication of increasing wealth; that what is called one-sided free trade has really enabled our laboring population to be fed, housed, and clothed more cheaply than in other countries; that it has also enabled them to produce more cheaply than any other workers; that the so-called balance of trade, instead of bringing adverse to, is largely in favor of Great Britain, and the world is likely to become more and more indebted to us, and pay us an annual tribute in money or money's worth. The pamphlet points out that the total of our shipping receipts, insurance interests, merchants' profits, and the income we derive from foreign investments, amounts to one hundred and twenty-six millions of pounds, which simply means that before England has to exchange a pound's worth of foreign products, she has to receive in some shape or other one hundred and twenty-six million pounds from foreigners. Pah!

THE HARVEST IN EUROPE.

Estienne's annual report says that on the whole the crops in France are not up to those of last year, but wheat is not much below the average. In Great Britain wheat is 10 per cent. below the average, and likely to realize only ten million quarters. Barley is 10 per cent. above the average, oats 20 per cent. below. In Austria-Hungary the crops are good all round. In Italy the crops are medium, quality much below last year's. In the Turkish provinces on the Danube wheat is medium, other crops good. The barley crop of Russia doubles that of last year, but is of poorer quality. None of the crops in Germany are up to the average. The Swiss crops are of good quality; wheat is poor in quality. All the crops in Spain are bad. Belgian wheat is far below the average, barley fair. All cereals in Holland are in good condition. All reports from the United States agree that the yield will be under the average.

A FIRE-EATING HOME RULE.

It is rumored that Mr. T. M. Healey, Home Rule member of Parliament for Wexford, has challenged Mr. Herbert Gladstone, member for Worcester, recently made Junior Lord of the Treasury, and a son of the Premier, to fight a duel. The offence given by Mr. Gladstone is said to have been certain words spoken in debate, and afterwards followed up at an accidental meeting of the two gentlemen in the smoking-room of the House. There is no probability of Mr. Gladstone accepting the invitation to the field of honor. He is no coward, but his well-known and very strong religious principles would prevent him from accepting the challenge.

ANXIETY AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

The Post's Washington special says: Secretary Blaine's midnight despatch is a revelation to the large majority of persons. It for the first time, gives them an adequate conception of the extraordinary weakness, exhaustion, and emaciation of the President. The attendants who have lifted the President the last few days say he is nothing but skin and bones. The increasing anxiety at the White House is illustrated by the fact that Mrs. Garfield scarcely leaves the bedside for a moment, and has discontinued her evening drives, but the President's physicians have not given up hope. The surgeons privately say that if suppuration does not interfere by Wednesday night they will regard it as conclusive that an abscess is not to form in the parotid gland.

THE CHANCES OF RECOVERY.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Sun's Washington special says it is regarded as probable that the President's inflamed gland will subside within the next three or four days. There is among the attending surgeons themselves a diversity of opinion concerning this difficulty. Boynton looks upon it as a most serious feature. Bliss, however, attaches less importance to it. Bliss is the only one who continues to express strong confidence in the President's ultimate recovery. The other physicians have become more cautious and conservative. Blaine, whose sources of information are excellent, has slight hopes of the President's recovery.

BLISS' OPINION.

The Times' special states that Bliss says the President generally takes the koumiss in his own hand, and administers it himself. He prefers to do so. Bliss also says there has never been a time since the President was shot when he could have been removed from the White House without the greatest possible hazard. There is no evidence of any inflammation caused by the ball where it has lodged, but the wound was a terrible one, and it has most severely taxed his strength.

CORN IN INDIA.

Mr. Blake, Liberal member of Parliament for Waterford, sails for India shortly, with a view of examining into agrarian questions there, especially in reference to the possibility of growing corn so as to make the United Kingdom less dependent upon supplies from Russia and the States of North America.

Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly.

The September number is especially noteworthy. The opening article, by George Alfred Townsend, entitled Days of Gloom in the White House, is timely and very interesting, embodying a history of the Presidential mansion, and the most prominent incidents in connection with the attempted assassination of the President. The article is illustrated by sixteen fine engravings. Mr. N. Robinson contributes an admirable article, Brighton, the Queen of English Watering Places, with thirteen illustrations. Movable Home and Tea Life treats of the various homes of the true nomad; there are fourteen illustrations, An Early Visit to Marshfield, A Russian Home, A Chapter on Roses, and Mr. Denning's article on Comets, with its eighteen illustrations, will be read with great interest. Benedict's serial, A Late Remorse, is continued, and there are some excellent stories by popular authors; one by Chandos Fulton, The Burglars in the House, is extremely humorous. There are sketches, essays, poems, and an abundant miscellany replete with interest and valuable information. The number is embellished with a handsome colored frontispiece, He Won't Hart You, from Heywood Hardy's painting. The price of a single copy is only 25 cents, and the yearly subscription $3, postpaid. A specimen copy will be sent post-free by enclosing 25 cents to Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

Liver Complaint and Indigestion.

Dear Sir,—My business has been that of an engraver and cutter in wood. Owing to confinement to ill-ventilated rooms my health gradually declined when I was unable to prosecute my business. At this time I was suffering from great prostration of strength, extreme indigestion and diarrhoeal liver. My usual weight was 152 lbs. but I had become so much emaciated that I weighed but 100 lbs. In the early part of my illness I commenced using Peruvian Syrup and almost immediately felt its tonic and invigorating influence. In the course of four months I used four bottles. My weight is the day 149 lbs. I have neither liver complaint nor indigestion, but consider myself in a perfect health and in good spirits. James Moore No 48 Pleasant St. Sold by all druggists. How Wislar's Balsam cures.

From Seymour Thatche, M. D., of Herman, N. Y. "WISLAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY gives universal satisfaction. It seems to cure a cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and by soothing irritation, thus removing the cause, instead of drying up the cough and leaving the cause behind. I consider the Balsam the best cough medicine with which I am acquainted." 50 cents, and $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists.

LOCAL MATTER

NOTICE.

The public are hereby cautioned against paying subscription amounts for advertisements to person on behalf of the STAR, unless said person hold written authority from me to collect and receive same. J. E. COLLINS, Ed. "Star"

Gams. Golden plover is said to have found in goodly number in the marsh the past week.

The Island Crops. A gentleman who has just visited Island informs us that large areas of oat and potato, and oat crop have ruined by the late rains.

Personal. Mr. Samuel Adams has arrived the West and is now in Bathurst on ing matters. He visited Chatham yesterday and attended the meeting there on mining matters.

"Fishy." The Star described the cartoon of Presidents body, showing the body printed in the Sun, as a "huge codfish." The same cartoon appeared in the Ontario Globe, and the Mail called it "scraggy funnny boddie."

Peace. The Sunday school children of John's church had a very successful picnic yesterday at the Perley "H Grove." The party was provided with well filled baskets, and the little and their teachers and guardians enjoyed the beautiful day to the fullest.

Lobsters. Messrs. J. & R. Young, Will Fleigher, Anderson, Bain and others shipping large quantities of fresh lobster by rail for England and States.

Something Needed. Those of the grip party who occupy high "social condition" here, ought try if they can't get the fifth of streets before Mr. Blake comes here. That would be much more credit than to expend their energy bringing the old pasture.

Removal. Carnichael Brothers are about moving their business to Bay Du Vin. They propose to carry on business on a larger scale, in forwarding fresh fowl, &c., to the local and foreign markets, as they see the opportunity.

Heavy Steers. Mr. J. L. Black, says the Post, a pair of very large steers. One weighed 1600 lbs., and is only two years three months old. Mr. Black is a successful evidently as a steer raiser as a politician.

Coles Circus. As will be seen by advertisement another column Cole's circus will the Miramichi on the 20th September. We are quite sure it will draw a larger crowd than Mr. Blake.

Ship in Trouble. The Norwegian barque "Noird," "Vesta," arrived in port yesterday, being caught in the fog during the week and ran aground on the spit Fox Island, after a heavy sea and an east wind. The Noird struck her and Captain Semb who is master of is inquiring for divers, and is to the necessary arrangements made to the bottom examined, but we do not know what action will be taken by captain of the "Vesta."

The Bathurst Mines. We learn that a number of gentlemen interested in mines in Gloucester met in Chatham yesterday, and for themselves into a company for working one of the Bathurst mines. The company is to be stocked for $250,000 shares of $5 each. Stock will be issued in a few days, when we presume that the mining fever is at height, numbers of our young men embrace the opportunity then open them to place their surplus earnings account. We wish all concerned good luck in the enterprise.

The Board of Health. We are delighted to announce that Government has ratified the regulations of the above Board. Now then, the following stages of these regulations have been passed, we might expect Board to "do something."

Time coming here from Fredericton 4 days. Time sitting regulations—14 days. Time of Board to deliberate on something,—50 days. This will take us nearly to Christmas. About Christmas then, the Board "do something."
