Red Hot July Days Hard On The Baby

July—the month of oppressive heat; red hot days and sweltering nights; is extremely hard on little ones. Scourge, dysentery, colic and cholera infantum carry off thousands of precious little lives every summer. The mother must be constantly on her guard to prevent these troubles or if they come on suddenly to fight them.

No other medicine is of such aid to mothers during the hot summer as is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels and stomach, and an occasional dose given to the well child will prevent summer complaint, or if the trouble does come on suddenly will banish it. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

IN MEMORY OF WASTED YOUTH

Richard Hutchison Leaves His Son One Dollar

SALEM, June 24—"In memory of a wasted youth." Alexander Harry Hutchison is bequeathed the sum of one dollar by the terms of the will of his father, Richard Hutchison of Swampscott, who died on June 15, leaving personal estate amounting to $4500. The will, which was written on Feb. 21, 1919, was filed for probate today.

By the provisions of the will Mr. Hutchison gives his amocular glasses, marine charts and boat models to Charles J. A. Wilson.

To Maude H. Kasebier, nee Hicks, his housekeeper, all the rest of the estate is given. With regard to his wife, Mr. Hutchison says: "By my request and at my direction my father has amply and generously provided for my wife and she is not in equity entitled to any part of my estate."

The testator desires in his will that his remains be cremated and the ashes be scattered on the waters at Marblehead Harbor, "without undue publicity." His housekeeper, Maude H. Kasebier of Marblehead, is named as executrix.—Boston Post June 25th

REFERRED TO HIS FATHER

Friends Interpret "Wasted Youth."

That "the wasted youth" referred to by Richard Hutchison, late commodore of the Boston Yacht Club, in his strange will that cut off his son, Alexander H. Hutchison with $1, was his own, and not that of his son, was the opinion of friends of young Hutchison yesterday.

The son of the former manager of Babcock & Wilcox on Federal street is a veteran of the Yankee Division and he served with distinction overseas as a non-commissioned officer of Battery A, 101st Field Artillery. He is married and has a daughter eight months old. He is employed by a banking house in Milk street. Against such a record of patriotic service and industry, coupled with the universal testimony of neighbors as to his personality and devotion to his family, the indictment in the will has but one interpretation, his friends say.

The dead man was well known in seafaring circles in Boston as a marine engineer, and it was considered strange that he resided in the boarding house of Maude H. Kasebier in Marblehead. Residents at Marblehead declare that the will which named his boarding house mistress as residuary legatee of his estate will be contested by his widow, who now lives in Brookline. His request that his ashes be scattered in Marblehead harbor was complied with several days ago.—Boston Sunday Post, June 26, 1921

YOUNG CARAQUET MAN DROWNED

Caraquet, July 1—Yesterday afternoon while bathing, Leo Leger, aged eighteen years, the son of S. R. Leger, M.P.P., was drowned at the public wharf. The body was immediately recovered and medical aid called, but life was extinct. He was a promising young man and had been a very successful student of Sacred Heart College, Caraquet, and St. Joseph's University.

King to have the remains sent home, but for some unknown reason this request was not complied with and Mr. Cassidy received a wire Monday afternoon, advising him that the Coroner refused shipment of the remains, and that deceased had been buried in Altamont. The late Robert Cassidy was 17 years of age and left here last September for the west where he has been employed ever since. Besides his father and step-mother he leaves to mourn one sister, Sadie, two half sisters, Irene and Mildred and one half-brother George. The news was received with great suddenness as his father had received a letter from him the preceding Tuesday, in which letter the young son said that he was in good health and getting along nicely. The community join in deep sympathy for the bereaved family.
