A Practical View of the Case.

The Mad is disatisfied because nine jurors rendered a verdict of $10,000 against it. La Patrie cleverly retorts: And yet the Mail upheld a jury of six which condemned Riel. On the Mail's jury there were six English tongues; on Riel's not one French.

An Apt Question.

A little Oakville boy, whose father was away from home, thought he would please him by writing him a letter. He put all the materials ready, and then paused, totally at a loss for something to say. All at once a bright thought struck him. He would astonish his father by writing something out of his new primer and let him see how well he was getting on. So opening the book at random he laboriously copied out the following:—"Is it an ass? It is an ass. Your son, Robbie."

Killed Himself in a Bar-room.

Ferdinand W. Regnier, a book-cannister who lives at No. 220 East Fourth-street, New York, entered Mike Murphy's saloon, at Nineteenth street and Second avenue, last night, and took two drinks. After finishing the second glass he went into the back room of the saloon and, drawing a 22-calibre "Revolver" revolver from his pocket, shot himself. He died almost instantly. On the dead man's person was found no money. A letter from his brother, a member of the firm of Regnier, Shoup & Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., refused to send money, as requested in a letter from the dead man. The body was removed to the Morgue.

1873. GRIP! 1886.
CANADA'S COMIC JOURNAL!

Thirteenth Year of Publication.

The aim of "GRIP" is to set forth, in an impartial and independent manner, the past events of Canadian political and social life. Its cartoons speak more definitely and more pleasingly than whole columns of editorial. Its pungent, easily appreciable, and artistic style of presenting a subject, the whole situation is revealed at a glance. The success of Grip shows how well this fact is appreciated. Its cartoons on the passing political events of the country being even more eagerly sought after than the chaste and numerous letter-press of the paper, though the latter is equal to that of any similar publication on the continent.

The cover is to be discarded; the paper is to comprise 12 pages; while a handsome design for the title page, a re-arrangement of the matter, and improved facilities for the artistic production of the cartoons, will materially improve the typographical appearance of the paper.

THE PRICE WILL NOT BE INCREASED.
Grip is now the cheapest paper of its class in America; and these improvements must definitely enhance its value. No one who takes any interest in the political and social affairs of this country should be without Grip. As it presents a complete and entertaining pictorial record, as the panorama moves.

Two Germans Venture too Near the Rapids and are Drowned.

CHITTEWA, Ont., Nov. 8.—Two Germans, one of them named Kepstein, went out this afternoon on the Niagara River. As they were passing the rapids some boys tried to warn them of their danger, but they did not seem to understand until it was too late. After the boat got well into the rapids it broke in two, and both men almost instantly disappeared and were carried over the Falls. Their bodies have not yet been recovered.

[We shall not say that these Germans had been dazed with beer-drinking, but they acted as if they were; and whether or not, the simile between those who indulge in alcoholic liquors and pleasure sailing above Niagara Falls, is a very apt one.—Ed.]
