Destructive Fire at Musgravetown.

Last Tuesday morning the dwelling of Mr. James Oldford, of Musgrave-town, B.B., was totally destroyed by fire. In less than fifteen minutes after the fire was lighted in the kitchen his son, living in the next house, made the outcry. An effort was made to stay the progress of the fire, but as the wind was high the effort proved futile. The next attempt was made to remove the furniture, but this also proved almost useless, as they succeeded only in getting out the organ and a few chairs, which were in the front room. All the other effects, consisting of beds and bedding, clothes, tables, chairs, stoves, &c., were destroyed, thus leaving the family destitute of all only what they had on. The cause of the fire can be by no means be attributed to defective fire-fencing, as the fire started some distance from the pipes. It is thought that the fierceness of the wind drove the sparks against the side of the house and ignited it. Mr. Oldford, who has reached the advanced age of 61 years, was well known in St.
John's and elsewhere as a successful planter. Much sympathy is shown for him and his family in the severe loss they have sustained. About 24 years ago he passed through a similar experience.

Arm Broken.

While Mr. Thos. Fleming was driving out the Cross Road with horse and dray on Thursday morning of last week, his horse was affrighted by a passing horse drawing a load of drums, and the animal became unmanageable. Mr. Fleming was knocked down, one of the wheels of his dray passing over his arm, breaking it at the wrist. He suffered intense pain but walked home unassisted, and as soon as a doctor could be procured had the injured limb set.—

Found Dead in Bed.

Mr. Daniel Lane, aged 76 years, who resided on Goodview Street, was found dead in his bed yesterday afternoon by his grandson. His wife died something over a year ago, and it was his custom during stormy weather to sleep late, so that when his daughter, Mrs. J. Griffin, who lives in the flat above that of deceased, did not hear him yesterday forenoon, she was not surprised. Later the silence below caused her some misgiving and she sent her little boy to her father's door to awaken him. The lad could not get in and went around to the bedroom window, to which he tapped but received no answer. Looking through the window he saw his grandparent in bed lying very still, and calling his mother she, in looking through the window, saw that he was dead. The shock overcame her.
The woman forced an entrance to the apartment and found her father rigid in death. The police were then informed of the occurrence. Dr. Tait was called and he pronounced death to be due to heart failure. The man had been dead several hours.

An Accident Averted.

The little 7 year old daughter of Mr. Joshua Bradbury very nearly met with a fatal accident on Wednesday afternoon, March 29th. She was sent to a neighbor's house for milk, and in going in the kitchen she stepped on the cover of a well which was partly off. It tipped, and as it did so she was precipitated into the water.
The occupants were outside in the yard at the time and her little sister gave the alarm. The lady rushed in and lowered a bucket. The child grasped the bucket and kept herself up, while the woman reached down and pulled the child out. It was indeed a miraculous escape.—Guardian.

C. KNOWLING. NEW BOOKS.

The Man Higher Up. Henry Russell Miller.

The story of a man who grows up from tenement wail to Governor of State and who in his upward struggle finds a woman rising like himself and conquering selfish aims. Their love for each other is both inspiring and refining. For its vital human appeal this book is remarkable. $1.35.

A Successful Wife. G. Dorset.

The experiences described are simply typical of many modern marriages and every woman will recognize their truth. There is a complete absence of both hysterics and of preaching. $1.35.

The Gold Brick. Brand Whitlock.

Whitlock has been a reporter and see things with a reporter's sharp penetration. He has been an Attorney and knows the drama of the Courts. Now he is Mayor of Toledo, a large city in the State of Ohio, by the persistence of a following independent of parties. The Gold Brick shows the politician on the up grade by the triumph of good impulses. $1.35.

The Way to Peace. Margaret Deland.

The story of an episode in the life of a husband and wife, told with strength and understanding of character. The husband is a kindly well-to-do lawyer. The wife a loving but nooty and restless woman, and the villagers hardly approve of her or her husband who honours her.

The Rosary.

One of those unusual stories that appeals to all classes of readers, an ideal love story, a source of genuine delight. $1.25.

The Rose and the Ring. Geo. B. Mc-Cutcheon.

More Sealing News.

At 4.30 p.m. yesterday Messrs. A. J.
Harvey & Co. had the following wireless from the Newfoundland:—

"Newfoundland at Trinity: heavy N. E. gale raging, will leave when weather moderates."

Mrs. Jacob Winsor, wife of the captain of the Bloodhound, wired Baine Johnston's from Wesleyville at 5.30 p.m. yesterday:—

"Wesleyville — Bloodhound arrived here yesterday, has 22,000; and left at 5 p.m. for Harbor Grace."

At 6 p.m. the firm learned that the ship had sheltered out of the storm at Bay de Verde. Up to midnight no messages had been received from the Southern Cross or Viking both of which no doubt harbored out of the storm.

Death at Grate's Cove.

On Thursday evening a sadness spread over this little settlement when the soul of Mr. Patrick Duggan passed out to meet its God. He had been suffering for the past four years owing to a stroke, by cutting wood, to one of his eyes which ended by his losing it. The past winter while at the same work, strange to say, the other eye received the self same stroke, which caused him to be suffering up to a month ago when his eye got well, then other troubles set in which put an end to his sufferings on Thursday evening. Mr. Duggan was a man not more than fifty years of age. He was well-known and had many friends, all of whom visited him in his illness, and on learning of his death felt it keenly. He leaves a wife, nine children and five brothers to mourn their sad loss. He was a kind and dutiful husband, and a good and loving father.
He was conscious to the end. One day previous to his death Rev. J. V. Donnelly was at his bedside and found him submissive to God's Holy Will.—

Sealers Reported Dead.

Since last week a rumor has been going the rounds of the city that the Newfoundland had a dead man on board, and since the Beothic arrived the report was that two of the Adven-ture's crew had died at the sealfishery, but Messrs. A. J. Harvey & Co. had nothing from the ship to warrant the truth of these rumors. They have had several wireless messages from Capt.
Jacob Keating of the Adventure but he said nothing of any deaths on his ship and certainly it must be false about Newfoundland as she arrived at Pool's Island Sunday and no such report was forwarded here. The general impression is that these rumors are false.

night. The reports of the officers showed that the Society was in a prosperous condition. The Hall has added. The theatre had been renovated and the lighting system is imable cure by use of DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD.

Mrs. Martin's condition as described in her letter below gives some idea of the extraordinary reconstructive power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. Such cures as this have placed Dr. Chase's Nerve Food where it stands today as the most popular and most effective nerve restorative that money will buy.

so weak and nervous that I could not do anything. I was in a terrible condition. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do anything. I was in a

"The use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food has built up my system wonderfully so that I can do my housework and washing without any trouble, and I want others to know about it. I

Revision of Calendar Up in England.

LONDON, March 31. — The British Government is taking immediate steps to ascertain the views of the commercial community of the Kingdom on the question of revising the calendar so that a given date shall always fall on the same day of the week. Inquiries will be set afoot by the Board of Trade, which is supported in the matter by the Foreign Office, and the Home Office.

The action is taken in consequence of an invitation from the Swiss Government to take part in an International Conference. That invitation is in turn, the result of a proposal approved by an International Congress of Chambers of Commerce sitting in London.

The proposals of the calendar reformers are that the first day of the year shall be a Bank Holiday, called "New Year's Day," which shall not count a day of the week, of the month, or of the quarter.

This leaves for the rest of the year 364 days. This number, divided exactly into four equal quarters of ninety-one days each, and into fifty two weeks of seven days each. Each quarter would thus contain exactly thirteen weeks.

According to the proposed scheme it would be divided into two months of thirty days each and one month of thirty-one days. Starting then with the year 1912, Easter Sunday and all the so-called movable feasts, feasts, and dates, dependent upon it would be fixed so as to fall in every year on the same day of the same month, as well as on the same day of the week.

April 14th would then and always be Easter Sunday and Christmas Day, December 25th, would always fall on Monday. Each day of the month also would always fall on the same day of the week.

To provide for the leap year, a Bank Holiday to be called "Leap Year Day" would in leap years be inserted between June 31st and July 1st. As in the case of New Year's Day, in the proposed system this would not count as a day of the week, the month or the quarter.

The proposals have been embodied in a Bill which is now before the House of Commons having been introduced by Robert Pearce, M. P., who attracted attention in connection with the proposal to save daylight by periodically setting the clocks of the Kingdom to fit the season.

Woman Robbed by Ghosts.

"Devil" and "Death" Arrested After They Took $1,000 in Hungary.

Vienna, March 16.—A poor peasant woman living in the lonely village of Wagelsely, in Hungary, was notified by the post office in the neighboring town that a sum of $1,000 was lying there for her which had been sent by her husband from America. The postal authorities told her to bring witnesses to identify when she came to claim the money.

The woman went to the mayor of her commune, who gave her a certificate. It was, however, too late to fetch the money on that day. During the night two horrible apparitions appeared to the woman in her lonely cottage. The "ghosts" said that they were the Devil and his brother, Death, and that she must give the money that she had fetched from the post office that morning to the Devil, as otherwise he would give her over to his brother, Death. The Devil said that her husband had stolen it in America, and that thus it belonged to him.

The woman, who was terribly frightened, said that she had not yet got the money. The "ghosts," it is alleged, compelled her to swear that she would deliver it to them next day and departed. The peasant woman went to the post office and asked for the money. The postmaster said that he wanted witnesses, and she replied that she could not pay them to attend, as the money belonged to the Devil in any case. She then related the incident of the night before.

The postmaster gave her the money and let her go home, but acquainted the police with her story. They watched the hut that night and arrested the "ghosts," who, it is alleged, turned out to be the mayor of the commune and a relative, who had taken possession of the money.

Special Evening Telegram,

The Evening Times claims that it has received advices to the effect that all the northern Chinese troops, stationed at Canton, mutinied because they are dissatisfied over the action of the Prince Regent in proclaiming himself as Commander-in-Chief of the murdered.

Had the insurrectionary outbreak occurred near the Portuguese frontier, or among the historically rebellious Catalonia, it would have given more concern to the Government, which has determined not to tolerate intervention by Portuguese republicans in Spanish affairs. The Government has notified Portugal that it cannot be used as a base for designs against the Spanish monarchy, without awakening

Struck by Ore Cars.

PROFESSOR HENRY ADAMS in his Presidential Address to the Institute of Sanitary Engineers early in 1908, said:—"Gas fires for heating are already widely adopted for offices, consulting rooms where a fire may be required at short notice. I have had nothing else in my office for the last thirty years and do not find any of the ill effects that have been ascribed to them."

Gas fires are universally used by Medical men in London, and they recommend them for use in the homes of their patients.

The Coal Smoke Abatement Society, among whose members are many men of high scientific and artistic attainment, are strong advocates of the use of gas for heating. The Society carried out a most elaborate series of tests with gas fires, etc., in May and June, 1906.
