ADVERTISE IN THE EVENING TELEGRAM.

PEPYS BEHIND THE SCENES.

May 17th.—I did write in my journal yesterday, being ill of a cold, which keeps me all day in bed, to my great discontent, but is now much better, thank God. This day, I did receive the greatest surprise of my life, almost, to learn how L. Stick is the third man on the Hickman ticket in Bonaville, and was always the very strongest Opposition man, being no less than chairman last year of the Young Men's Committee of the Young Voters of the East End. And what is also a surprise, is M. G. Winter, Jr., he going to Burn with G. Harris, that was the Opposition man last year, and greatly opposed to Coakerism. News to-night of the Kyle, she going to Port aux Basques, and takes with her the Hickman men for Burn, whom she will drop at Burn, but the utmost secrecy about it, that the Opposition men may not go also.

May 18th. (Lord's Day).—With my wife to-day, to the Church of St. Thomas, and hear Mr. Elliott, the new rector, to preach, and the first time of my hearing him. A mighty fine man, I think, and his discourse the pleasantest almost that ever I listened to, and I must go to hear him more often. Little news this day, but next evening like to be a most exciting one, being that the candidates for both parties barely in the field, and the campaign will start in good earnest.

C. E. I. A.

The annual meeting of the C.E.I. Athletic Association was held in the Club Rooms Saturday night, at 9.45 o'clock. Mr. J. J. Long acted as Chairman. The election of officers for this year resulted as follows:—

President—E. Knight.
Vice-President—A. Peaver.
Secretary—J. Newhook.
It was decided to again enter a team in the Football League, and Mr. Eric Church was appointed League Delegate. The election of football officers was deferred until after a practice. As the Association has lots of material to pick from the team should make a strong showing in this season's games.

Prominent Lady Arrested

Bulletin No. 4.
The Conventor gave forth his edict:—"I am keen on securing Mrs. McKean" and made a noise like a large box of chocolates, whereupon a squad of Girl Guides came tumbling in. Not one knew where Mrs. McKean lived.
The City Directory was consulted, and two days were spent in calling at wrong addresses.
On the third day Waterford Bridge Road echoed to the high heels of the Guides.
They were met by Mr. McKean, who complimented them upon their complexions and said they needed a home to him to be tanned.
"We don't want puns, but buns, and have no intention of being guided," said the Guides; whereupon they seized Mrs. McKean and brought her to the Conventor.
"We want you to look after the supper arrangements for the Big Dance of the Allies," said Tim. "I hear you have Mrs. Beeton beaten when it comes to baking buns. If you refuse your cake is dough and I'll have you shot as dead as the dove."
What would you have done under the circumstances? Exactly. And Mrs. McKean did it. Wait till you taste some of her exquisite creations at the Dance.

Candid Chats Concerning Coaker

Remember, men of Conception Bay, Coaker said you could be bought for $10.

St. John's East will not stand for Coakerism and after June 2nd L. E. Emerson's initials will be LEFT.

Will Coaker tell the fishermen of the North that nine-cent Modell is now his guide, philosopher and friend? Fishermen, ask yourselves this question, is Modell working for nothing?

St. John's West will return three Monroe candidates.

Coaker would institute a West India steamship service while the South Coast cannot have a single steamer to look after its interests. The South Coast does not forget the fish regulations and the Coakerite candidates will not stand a chance of election.

The North has already slipped from Coaker's grasp. Coaker knows this and will not even contest Bonaville.

Everywhere the slogan is Monroe is the man.

Child Burned to Death

7 YEAR OLD STELLA EARLE THE VICTIM.

When Mr. and Mrs. Earle left their home yesterday, the former to take up his duties as watchman and the latter to attend prayers, little did they think that their seven year old daughter, Stella, would be suddenly snatched from the family circle.
When Mr. and Mrs. Earle, who reside on Pierce Avenue, left their little one playing, there was no fire in the house so that the child was left perfectly safe.

It is presumed that in some way the little girl got some matches and went out into the yard and kindled a fire with some chips and paper, which she had gathered; and standing close to the flames her clothing became ignited.

Child Rushed to Hospital.
The child was rushed to the General Hospital as soon as possible, but she was so terribly burned that she died at the institution this morning. To the heart broken father and mother the Evening Telegram offers its sympathy.

Double Fatality at Humber Canal

TWO WORKMEN SMOTHERED.

Word comes from the Humber of a double fatality, which occurred at the Humber Canal, near Deer Lake, on Friday last, when two men, named Henry Horan and Patrick Brien, were buried alive under an avalanche of sand. The particulars of the appalling accident are as follows:—"Previous to the accident the men were engaged working at the foot of an embankment and on top of which was a track used for the purpose of running flat cars loaded with sand. One of these cars, it appears, was passing over where the men were working, when it suddenly left the track and the whole load of sand went over the men, completely covering them. A number of men, working alongside, quickly rushed to their aid, but by the time the men had been uncovered they were found dead. The bodies of the unfortunate victims were confined and came through by Saturday's express to be forwarded to their homes. The body of Patrick Brien arrived in the city yesterday and was taken in charge by Undertaker Martin, at whose Mortuary Rooms it rested all day. This morning the body was forwarded to his late home, Cape Broyle, by the Trepassey train, which went out at 11.30. Brien was a young man of 25 years and unmarried. The body of Henry Horan was sent to Argentina to be forwarded to his home by the Glencoe at Belleoram. The case of Horan is a particularly sad one, as he leaves to mourn a wife and nine children. To the sorrowing relatives of the deceased, widespread sympathy will be extended.
