

Hon. J. D. Ryan

Passes Away

HON. J. D. RYAN, M.L.C., K.C.S.G.

The city lost one of its most esteemed citizens and the country one of its Grand Old Men when shortly before six o'clock last evening the soul of the Hon. James D. Ryan winged its flight to realms celestial.

For about a year he had been failing, though even in that time he was not wholly confined to his home; but it was not until a fortnight ago that he became seriously ill and his life became despaired of. Yesterday he lapsed into unconsciousness, and with the going down of the sun passed into eternal rest.

The Hon. J. D. Ryan occupied an enviable position in the community; no one was more generally esteemed and admired and his friends were legion. His quiet, unassuming, genial, gentlemanly manner, made an irresistible appeal, and no one failed to be attracted who came within reach of his magic spell. With his passing, a long, active, and useful life has ended. Eighty-one years ago, on September 6th last, he was born in Kedra, County Tipperary, Ireland, and he had just reached manhood when he emigrated to this country, coming to Carbonear. For a while he was employed with the well-known firm of Donnelly, at Harbor Grace, and then came to the city, taking a prominent position with the firm of O'Brien. In 1889 he opened business as a general grocer, and the business is still a flourishing concern.

Mr. Ryan's public activities were many, but perhaps his most notable work was associated with the Benevolent Irish Society, in all the varied undertakings of which he took a deep and practical interest. For forty-two years he occupied official positions in the Society; and for twenty-five years he was its esteemed President. During his presidency, the organization grew rapidly, and through its splendid educational work, exerted a big influence in the community.

The fine building in which the Society carries on its activities, and in which the Christian Brothers are rendering such excellent service to the youth of the city, was largely the result of his labors. When the hall was built in 1877 he was Secretary of the building Committee, and such was his success and popularity in that office that upon the restoration of the hall, after the fire, he was chosen as Chairman of the Building Committee. It was under his presidency also that the splendid O'Donnell wing was planned and completed. The labors of the Christian Brothers in the St. Patrick's Hall Schools, for which the Society holds itself responsible, ever found in Mr. Ryan a sympathetic and generous friend, whose time and counsel and ready assistance were ever theirs to command.

Through his activities in the Benevolent Irish Society the late Mr. Ryan left an impression on the life of the community that will be felt for generations. In 1909 he ventured into the political arena, and under the leadership of Sir Robert Bond successfully contested the District of Ferryland. To one of his placid disposition, however, the hurly-burly of active political life held no attraction, and in 1914 he was glad to receive his appointment to the Legislative Council Chamber, whose serene and serene environment was more to his liking. There he took an active interest in public affairs, taking part in debate when he had advice or suggestion to offer, and generally winning the regard of his fellow members.

In 1920 he was appointed President, and for five years occupied the position with dignity and honour. In February last when failing health necessitated his retirement, his resignation was received with general regret. His uniform courtesy, impartiality and kindness had won for him not only the respect but the admiration of his fellow Councilors. His tenure of the Presidency had been comparatively brief, but it was one which in every way had been a credit to him and to the high office, the duties of which he had so well filled.

Mr. Ryan was a devout member of the Roman Catholic Church; a generous contributor to its support, and prominently identified with its many activities. His worth as a Catholic layman and his efforts, only slightly known in the cause of charity and devotion, won for him recognition and distinction that come to few. In 1919 he was signally honoured by His Holiness Pope Benedict XV, when he was decorated with the Order of St. Gregory the Great and made a Knight Commander of that most noble order, which entitled him to add the letters K.C.S.G. to his name. Mr. Ryan was the first and only resident of this country to receive this honour. His life was marked by unselfish devotion to his church and all its interests.

In his home life Mr. Ryan was a devoted husband and father. There the sorrow will be greatest and there he will be mostly missed. He is survived by his wife, at home, and an only daughter, Mrs. F. J. King, now residing at Winona, Minn., U.S.A. The funeral takes place at 2:30 p.m. to-morrow, Thursday, from his late residence, Beg Orchis Terrace, Queen's Road.

Magna Charta Day

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—The opening paragraph of your thought-compelling editorial of June 15, 1925, "Magna Charta Day," puts our aims in better and truer English than we have been able to do ourselves, and we thank you for the high sentiments which you have expressed.

The press of the English-speaking World has been especially good to us in this year of grace 1925, and we wish that a man of the right literary ability and vision would take over our great scrap book, now divided into two books, and write a book on the Magna Charta Day Movement, especially referring to the lofty tone of these editorial expressions of the press of the world in behalf of the Great Charter, of the need of the Movement, and their congratulations on its success, the latter largely due, of course, to their own great help. Such a book would be a noteworthy contribution to the political and social history of our times.

Here is a copy of that splendid tribute of Hon. E. H. Root in which he portrays in noble language the greatness of the Charter itself and of civilization's debt to England. Perhaps you would print this some time in full. The British press can well do this yearly, and in fact, the tribute itself could profitably appear in the school books of The Seven Nations, and in larger type be framed and hung in libraries, homes, schools, etc.

You refer in your last paragraph in language clear and to the point to the value of a closer intimacy between the people of the Great Republic and the subjects of the British Sovereign. Note please what Lionel Curtis, Esq., says:—

"This commonwealth of nations speaking the English language is a steel frame spread throughout the whole structure of the world and were it to collapse, the peace of the world would fall in unspeakable ruin; the five continents are poised on its arches."

That phrase of our Movement which has perhaps won most profound interest with people generally is its definite value with reference to world peace, which in the opinion of many thinkers rests more largely upon the close co-operation of the English-speaking Nations than upon any other political factor to-day.

Again we thank you for your editorial and may we take this opportunity of expressing the profound gratitude of our Executive Committee with reference to the splendid work of our Executive Vice-President for Newfoundland, Mr. Principal R. R. Wood. What might we not accomplish if the Association were fortunate enough to have such support from a score of gentlemen like Mr. Wood.

Faithfully yours,

J. W. HAMILTON.

AT HOME—Mrs. F. J. Barron will be "At Home" on Thursday and Friday afternoons, from 3.30 to 5.30, at 33 Power Street, nov. 2, 21.

S.S. Portia Arrives After Rough Trip.

S.S. Portia, Capt. Connors, returned from the Western Coastal service at 2.30 p.m. yesterday, after a stormy round-trip passage of nine days. The Portia brought only a small freight and three salmon passengers, viz., Mrs. J. E. Green, Dr. St. Croix, and Mrs. St. Croix, besides 25 in steerage. A number of passengers joined the steamer at points along the coast, and transferred to the train at Argenteau. Capt. Connors reports that a regular succession of storms have prevailed on the coast during the past two weeks, and as a result considerable fishing property has been destroyed.

At Burin and St. Lawrence the worst of the gale was felt, practically everything movable being swept away. Despite the stormy weather the steamer behaved splendidly, all ports of call being made without the least damage to the ship. The only delay to the steamer was on the return run when Capt. Connors was obliged to shelter for a day and night at Ramona. The Portia sails west at 3 p.m. Friday from Grosble & Co's premises, where freight for her will be received.

S.S. Newfoundland called for Liverpool at seven o'clock last night. S.S. Sachem was expected to leave Liverpool yesterday for here.

S.S. Canadian Sapper is now en route to Montreal from this port. S.S. Rosalind left Halifax at one o'clock yesterday and is due here to-morrow morning.

Another Name Suggested

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—Like many others, I am going to suggest a name for the new Hotel, viz., Hotel Trafalgar, for the following reasons:—

- (1) It is Imperial and reminiscent of one of the most glorious pages of English History.
- (2) It is never mispronounced.
- (3) It is not a name in common use, or rather a name that has even been used in a base sense.
- (4) It is a name that commands respect. Should this name be adopted of the square adjacent to it could be named Nelson or Trafalgar Square.

Yours truly,

A. B. WALKER.
