But No Great Demand-A Rush for Vegetables - Rhubarb Wanted-Butter Lower.

There was nothing sensational about he local market this morning. The fine weather enabled a large number of farmers to come to the city, and hey brought with them the usual of-

Whatever may have been the cause here was an almost unprecedented number of porkers on the market. Upwards of 30 pens were to be seen on the west side of the square, and each contained from six to ten pigs-none nore than a few months old. The demand for them, however, was quietquieter than were the porkers themselves-and many a load had to be aken back to the farm again. Another feature of the market was the great rush for vegetables of all investors have held off, being confident the lines offered, and prices were steady kinds. Before 10 o'clock there was scarcely a wagon standing anywhere Mr. on the square in which remained any of the garden produce. One woman brought in what she thought yould be an ample supply of rhubarb -100 bunches—was ready to go home half an hour after she reached the market. She had no objection to this, but what she did object to was herfailure to bring in 200 bunches, for she got a dollar for every dozen as fast as for under the old law," said the comshe could count them out. Butter was not as high as last week, Eggs were in good demand and all offered were quickly purchased at 13½c to 14c per dozen wholesale, and 14c to 15c retail. Although there was a considerable quantity of apples offered, sales were quite brisk, at 50c to 75c per bag and $1.25 however, being small.

to $1 75 per bbl. Vegetables and Roots—There was a large display in this line; sales were brisk, at $1 20 to $1 25 per bag for potatoes, and 50c per bag for parsnips; rhubarb sold quickly at $1 per dozen; lettuce, radishes and onions were held at 40c per dozen; the demand was greater than the $10,000 GRANT upply.
