[Special to The Advertiser.] San Antonio, Texas, March 22.-Sick-

hess in the Indianapolis camp made it necesary for Charlie Carr either to borrow players from the Detroit squad today or to cancel a game that looked like day or to cancel a game that looked like more money than either club had seen in the stands in some time.

The generous Mr. Jennings came through with enough Tigers to fill out a team and the outcome was as might be estimated.

It ended with a score of 1 to 0 against Detroit, and the four Tigers who figured in borowed finery were mainly responsible for the result.

Lister turned off a fine double play that wrecked hopes of some runs fourth, and Stanage in the same inning picked off a base runner, so that while making two singles and drawing a pass this round, no Tiger man made second Schmidt scored the only run of the game, and Drake stole a double from a.m.
