[Special to The Advertiser.] HAMILTON, July 2. - The London Canadian Leaguers had the better of a hitting rally after the ninth inning in today's fixture, with the result that they left the Ambitious City tonight winner of the eleven-inning encounter. At the of the eleven-inning encounter. At the end of the ninth the score, 4 to 4, made it look like anybody's game, but it was after that sesion that London showed its real class. The fans were not at all satisfied with a number of decisions by Umpires Halligan and Bedford, and set up the howl that carelessness on the part of the officials cost the Athletics the game. In one justance the kick was the game. In one instance the kick was justified, when Bierbauer stretched a two-bagger to the plate on White's error.

Bierbauer was caught two feet off, but Halligan called him safe. Long Hits Featured. Up to the ninth some nice long hits featured the game, as well as a double play pulled by Hamilton, when Mc-Groarty caught a nice fly meant for an infield hit by Whiteraft. The Hamilton shortstop doubled Reidy at first. Both teams had seven hits at the end of the Reisling replaced Steiger on the mound, but Shears continued to do duty for the locals. Both teams made a run in the tenth. For London, Bierbauer made a three-bagger, and scored a moment later, when Shears was guilty of a

TREDELL WINS 2:30 PACE

Queen Abbess Won 2:16 Pace After Thrilling Finishes With Daisy at Law and Maida.

[BY SCOTTY.] Fast racing and Nat Ray's driving were the prevailing features on the Queen's Park track yesterday afternoon, and the record crowd of followers of the race game received their money's worth in every heat of the afternoon's program, of which the Veteran Ray won six heats and two races, consisting of two pacing stakes, with a cash value of $2,000 each.

Little Alfred Won 2:14 Pace. Little Alfred, with Ray up, won the 2:14 pace in straight heats, but with the exception of the final heat, was given stiff battle by Rouse's Point Boy. Off in the lead each time, Rouse's Point Boy fought to maintain his place and win the race, but Little Alfred was there with a world of speed, and won after stiff stretch racing. The first heat was the best of the race, four of the entrants crossing the wire within inches of each The final was a walkaway for Little Alfred, who won in a canter.

OTTAWA, July 2. - The Beavers annexed the final game of the series from the Senators, Kirley going back in the mound and humbling the Champions 7 to 1. Lill twirled for Ottawa. Outside of the fact that he allowed eight hits to the four obtained off Kirley, the Champions played very poor ball behind him, errors helping nearly every run come across.

Kirley allowed two hits in both the fourth and eighth, and was airtight in all the other innings. A touch When the second semi-final started excitement was tense. The shells got off to a good start. The Germans began with 41 strokes to the first minute against errors by Dolan, and Smykal scored a couple for Toronto in the fourth. Three once and were leading by a good quarter singles and two more errors accounted of a length at the quarter mile. The Germans then began rowing faster but Boston appeared to have taken their fly scored two more in the eighth.
