Artillery Bombardment or

Infantry Attack.

[Canadian Press.] OTTAWA, March 30 .- A graphic story of the fighting in Northern France and Belgium has reached the Government from Sir Max Aitken Canadian eye-witness, who accompan led a party of press representatives to the front in the region occupied by the British army. The report follows:
Acting under instructions from the Canadian Government and the war office, the Canadian record officer visited the field of operations of the British army in Belgium and Northern France and reports as follows: Canadian Divisional Headquarters in Flanders, March 31 .- "Six kilometres

First Men in Trenches.

You know what it means to feel "all out-of-sorts." Most people have felt this way at some time, Nerves out of order, irritable, languid, depressed. An aching head, a fagged brain, appetite bad and digestion weak. With some people this condition comes and goes: with others it is chronic; they can't shake it off, it interferes with business, spells recreation and robs life or all its joys, These men and women are only able to live and work at "half-speed people have lost the speed."

Facts For Easter Buyers to Bear In Mind

The great, steady demands of thousands of people, who have learned to bank on our judgment of styles, makes no difference to our steady service and selection, for the replenishing of stocks moves smoothly and efficiently every day. The important point to keep in mind-of vital importance to all who appreciate the ever-changing moods of fashion—is that every suit, coat, gown, hat, or fabric, which you may see here has had its style-authenticity carefully checked up and is certified as being correct with today's style situation in fashion centres.
