Kerley and Graham Are Pounded Hard, But Locals Make Fewer Misplays Than Guelph and Bunch Hits More Often.

[BY BERT PERRY.] OC. Reisling's Indians chased G. Naughty Lee's Leafs from out of the attic of the Canadian League over in Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon. If you should happen to take a peek at the standing of the teams in Mr. Fitzgerald's baseball league today you will find that Billy Cristall's Hams are lamping the lofty view from the top deck and Mr. Lee and his athletes are glimpsing the scenery from one of the portholes. That's what Mr. Lee and his gang get for visiting our baseball park at a time when the home boys are trying to convince the fans that they are a real ball club and not a flock of counterfeits

Pretty Easy to Get Runs.

It was quite a pastime yesterday.
One of those kind of games where about everything on the calendar is pulled off at one time or another.

Runs were pretty chean. They were Runs were pretty cheap. They were retailing about 10 cents a dozen in some session when this London team was out to get them, and the visitors also bought a few at that figure. They haven't been as cheap over in Tecumpage Park since the first day the Leafs was close at that seh Park since the first day the Leafs much time. The play was close at that arrived here last month, when the Schaffer and Eckstein were the heavy score was something like 17 to 6 in our favor. The home lads did not go that high yesterday, but they went far enough to make it convincing. The final count was 11 to 6.

Matt Kirley was on the mound all through for the tea-leaves. In about five of the eight frames London played.

Schaffer and Eckstein were the heavy clouters of the afternoon, each getting three safeties in five times up. Eckstein had a double in his three, both he and Lacroix getting two-baggers when Kirley tried to fool them on one of his slow balls. Lamy was the only other member of the local club to get more than one hit.

Myers' Stop Ended It.

five of the eight frames London played, wounded, as Knotty Lee might say.
When the demon diamond stars of Mr.
Reisling were not driving in runs, the visiting team man came up in the night did not have a thing to do in the field until the last man came up in the ninth until the last man came up in the ninth inning. Then he made a beautiful stop of Grieves' fast hopper and threw him out at first, ending the game. Guelph had a man on third and second at the time, and Myers' stop probably prevented a rally that might have made the Leafs dangerous.

Quite a number of ladies attended the game exterday taking advantage of the just to keep the game from lagging. and they all figured in the scoring.

The Tecumsehs were not given to booting the ball to such an extent as their opponents. extent as their opponents. Murphy, ss 5
This helped to keep the club O'Brien, If 5 of Mr. Lee from crossing the pan with too much frequency, no doubt.

London started off nicely by scoring two runs to Guelph's one in the first innings. They added another in the second frame, and looked to have a firm grasp on the joust until the third and fourth, when the visitors tied it up and went into the lead by a single counter. London again tied it up in the fourth and took a three-run lead in the fifth. The men of Mr. Lee were not to be denied, however, and they cut down the lead to one run by getting two in the sixth. London's half of the sixth, however, put the contest on the shelf of certainty. Four runs, three of which were nothing but gifts, were registered in this frame, and from then on the visitors subsided. That is, all the visitors but G. Knutty Lee. G. Naughty wouldn't subside if you tied him at the bottom of a well and filled it up with water. He would likely shoot enough hot air into the water to evaporate it all before it had a chance to smother him. Knotty never gives up, and that line of talk of his is entertaining if nothing else. He has a lot of "pep" on the coaching lines and he keeps his team fighting.
