The message was in the form of a letter addressed to the secretary of

The letter follows:
"Dear Sirs,—In acknowledging your very kind invitation to attend the annual banquet of the Ontario Municipal Electrical association and the Association of Municipal Electric the Association of Municipal Electri-Special to The Advertiser.

Niagara Falls, June 24.—In his first public pronouncement regarding kindness and to say that if it were public pronouncement regarding motion for the limitations at present hydro-electric since he was stricken not for the limitations at present placed upon me I should be most ance rendered by you has greatly contributed to bring about the present satisfactory condition of the whole undertaking. The confidence that has been manifested towards you by those whom you represent, and the confidence that has existed between the members of your association and the hydro-electric power commission has, probably more than any other feature, been the secret of the success that has been attained. You must all continue to exercise a live interest n the commission's affairs. Work Progresses.

"May I remark that at the time I was compelled, through illness, to lay aside the less important details, the prominent matters that were in hand, such as the work in connection with the Queenston-Chippawa plant, the Ninigan development, the prothe Nipigon development, the program respecting the development of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa rivers, the St. Lawrence and Ottawa rivers, the initial steps looking to the establishment of steam plants, had been advanced as far as it had been possible, and with the constant attention of the Honorable Mr. Cooke to the affairs of the commission, and the continued co-operation and loyalty of the staff and the whole of the commission's coranization the affairs of

ON ACCOUNT OF THE ANNUAL STORE PICNIC. SUIT CASES TRUNKS CLUB

Persons whose vacation takes them to places where the mode changes with the hour, must be particular about their attire. And luggage must also be in the mode to correspond. Persons are very often judged by their travelling things; and a Bag or a Trunk bought now will last for many years, and it can be used on all occasions of travelling.

TRUNKS-Large, roomy affairs-some of the wardrobe type, some plain, range in prices to suit all customers.

BAGS of every description—for the hat, for overnight, for the week-end or the very large ones with hat box to match, roomy enough for a fair-sized wardrobe. These last are in the ever popular black enamel duck, with russet binding and strap, ranging from $7.50 to $9.50. There are many styles and all prices, all to be seen in the Luggage Department, in the Basement.
