That is pretty strong language, even allowing for the warm blood of generous youth. But it gives a vivid picture of the sickening results of Mr. Sifton's rule in the Klondike. Verily the Liberals are great protectors of the interests of the people.

STORY WITH A MORAL.

Once upon's time a country cat that was also a hayseed cat, visited the city and learned many new things about life that she never dreamed of before, and put some of them into practice. Her city coustn showed her about and improved her mind and manage in management.

Finally the country cat was taken to a manicure establishment, where her nails were carefully trimmed, rubbed with ordiscot powder and polished to a high degree. When the country cat returned to her cural home, she expected to cause a sensation.

sation.

As she approached her home sne met her hereditary enemy, the fox terrier, and the dog, from force of habit, emitted a bark and gave chase.

The cat, also from force of habit, made for the nearest tree and tried to climb to its topmost branches.

But her claws were so short that she could not adhere to the tree trunk, and the dog grabbed her thorax and choked the life out of her, all the lives, in fact.

One Phase of the New Woman

It is quite the thing just now to make sport of the aggressiveness of the new woman, but there is one thing that the new woman is fitting herself to do, for which she must be commended, and that is, either to earn her own living or to implement her ordinary income. If the inclination of the new woman is towards independence and freedom from restraint, it is equally in the direction of improvement of her condition and betterment of her surroundings. In various honorable ways she earns money without resorting to drudgery. The Song of the Shirt has no place in her vocabu ary. She may work with her pen or her brush, or her voice or her musical touch may be made to contribute to her creature comforts; but by far the larger number of women of all ages and in various walks of life earn their livelihood, in part or in whole, from the skillful needle. Knowing how to do it is the great secret, and every lady of orginary intelligence can learn how to do the most artistic procheting, knitting and embroidery by following up the simple lessons in the Corticelli Home Needlework Magazine. The spring number of this admirable quarterly is now ready for delivery, and, like its predecessors, is a marvel of usefulness and beauty, and furnishes valuable instructions in the art of French lace embroidery, modern lace making, embroidered shirt waists, new centerpiece designs, crocheted purses and bags, etc.

The magazine is profusely illustrated in colored and black prints, and is sold for 10c. a number or 85c. per annum. Address
