WOMEN AS FARM HANDS

Winnipeg. Man.-Unable to obtain men enough for the harvest fields. Manitoba farmers hired women in their places. They are said to have done just as good work as the former farm rands, and there was much less shirking among them. That is the way with women. They work too hard—and often overtax their strength. Then the system becomes run down, the liver gets out of order, and constipation and biliousness make life miserable. Mrs. John THINK CONDITIONS SOUND Cline, of Avlmer, Ont., suffered from these troubles for ten years and found no relief until she tried "Fruit-atives." Witness in London Case Gives Testi-mony Regarding the Notorious Brockville Election nearly ten years ago, when the late Hon. P. White and W. H. Comstock were candidates, recoiled upon the prosecution.

R. McNabb, who had charge of French Liberal voters in the constituency, was asked and testified that he received from a man believed to be O'Gorman about $60 and was told to counsel for defence. "Yes," replied McNabb. FOR CLEAN ELECTION

Opposing Candidates in Colchester County Bye-Election Conclude an Agreement

Truro, N. S., Nov. 21—Nominations for Colchester county federal bye-election took place this afternoon. Mr. Stanfield, Conservative. and Mr. Hill, Liberal, were nominated. Both-candidates have signed an agreement to have a clean election. The Liberal candidate will select one hundred men from the Conservative ranks, and the conservative a like number of Libers to see that no crooked work is done. The proposition was made by Mr. Hill and accepted by Mr. Stanfield accepted by Mr. Stanfield conservative a like number of Libers to see that no crooked work is done.
