There passed away at New Carlisle on Thursday, February 2nd, Alvin Astles, late of the Quebec Composite Battalion during the war. He was stricken down with heart trouble while in active service and never recovered his health.

The funeral which was a military one, was largely attended, and the body drawn by horses with rider in full uniform, will long be remembered. The scene brought back many an incident which the boys have witnessed in Flanders. The funeral service was held in St. Andrew's Church, Rev. A. W. Buckland officiating, who gave a touching sermon from St. Paul's words, "Watch Ye, Stand Fast." The last post was sounded at the grave.

The deceased leaves to mourn his loss, a wife and five children, who have the sympathy of all in their hour of sadness.

TUXIS BOYS PLAY HOCKEY

Newcastle and Campbellton Engage in Fast Hockey Game.

The Tuxis Boys of Campbellton and Newcastle crossed sticks on the latter's ice last Wednesday night in a rushing game of hockey, which resulted in a win for Newcastle of 4-3.

LeBouffe on the right wing and A. Jardine in goal were the stars for Campbellton. LeBouffe was everywhere with incredible speed. His individual rushes were whirlwinds although not goal getters, but when his passes of the forward line dipped the puck he was in the right place each time and scored the whole three goals for Campbellton.

Jardine defended the Campbellton net in a most efficient manner, fending the incessant shots of his opponents with admirable alacrity and skill. The other players on the team played well and by their untiring efforts kept the score from piling up.

The Newcastle boys played a clean, fast game, exhibiting some clever teamwork and skillful shooting. Few penalties were imposed on either sides.

The line-up was as follows:—
Newcastle Campbellton
W. McCormack Goal A. Jardine
F. McMichael Point B. McKennie
C. O'Donnell C. Point H. Jardine
R. O'Donnell Centre H. Metzler
F. McCormack R. Wing A. LeBouffe
L. Wing G. McBeath
C. Robinson Spares C. Dunham
E. Travers J. Dickie
J. Smith
G. Graham
