We want it for reasons connected with Canada, not with Ireland at all. And these reasons are plain to be understood, and quite in accordance with common sense too. Some of them may thus be briefly indicated: While hoping that white-winged peace may to the end of time continue to brood over Canada and the United States, and the country which is the mother country of both, we cannot shut our eyes to the fact that for them to sab together in commercial competition is the material destiny of all three. Then the British negotiators will in sheer despired fall back on Commercial Union as the last resort, and Sir John will be quick enough to accept it when he sees he can do nothing clas. To these despicable friends of every country but their own it appears that this quite exhausts the possibilities. We beg to suspeed another contingency—that of coming to some agreement which shall be the missionem possibile to be sailed an agreement as all, and which shall effect what is absolistely necessary, and no more. the market for which they are designed. I am convinced that the cable reports to the Associated American Press are largely untrue. Their untrustworthiness and their Anglophobic tone render them most distasteful to our people, and I believe the only relief will be found in establishing a Canadian Associated Press. Newspaper men could judge its cost, but I believe that support would be given at once, if asked, by many papers published in the States, such as The New York Scotsman and others, and that the temperate and trustworthy character of the Canadian reports would shortly establish a reputation which would occasion a general demand for them.

doctor, said he was in nowise responsible for the doctor's theological dinions, and he would introduce him not as a clergyman, but as an Irishman.

Dr. McGlynn spoke for over an hour. In the course of his remarks he said: "I plead guilty to the implied charge of being a clergyman and also to the charge of being an Irishman. But not here or anywhere else will I say anything in the course of my priesthood. I am not a Fenian, but I remember how, twenty divey years ago, when young priests had to argue with the oldest theologians to prevent the church from doctaring against the brotherhood, we believed in something more than mere contory in striking a manly how whenever there was the slightest opportunity to punctuate and emphasize the oratory, and the same thoologians who opposed the Fenians were opposed to the American Abolitionists. This night a year ago I was in this hall, but not on this platform, and now I will tell you why. I was in the audience with James Redpath. There were calle for us to go to the platform. We started towards the committee room to go there, but instead I darted for the way out. I did not dare to go on the platform for a man 5000 miles away four or five years ago had sent word to have that priest McGlynn forbidden to attend such meetings. I had been suspended before for speaking the truth about the accused landlords, and if I had gone on this platform then I should have been suspended again by a man in a marble paiace a mile or so away, who, like myself has an Irish name, and who, I believe, is an American citizen, and in a short time another letter would have come from Rome saying. Ho, ho, this Priest McGlynn has been at I sagnin, and I would have been instructed that I must not express sympathy with those who died that treland might be free. I say these things to show that I suppressed myself and in all possible ways submitted myself to authority. But while it may be right to keep slient it is not right to retract the truth once spoken. DEATH OF JOCKEY SPELLMAN.

A Canadian Who Attained Eminence in the Saddle—Tobogram Siddle in Queen's Park.

New York, Nov. 23.—John Spellman, the jockey, died this morning from the effects of injuries received in a house of questionable reputation on Thirteenth-street.

Ispellman was a Canadian by birth, having been born in the County of Brant. About 1871 he was a bell boy in a Brantford hotel, which occupation he left to join the turn. His first and only employer in Canada was the well-known horseman Pat Davey, in whose employ he was two years, during which he became prominent by riding the old horse Pilot. In 1873 he left Canada and went to the United States, where he soon became very successful in the saddle, and till within a few years was considered one of the best jockeys on the American turf. One of fils most prominent victories was on Drake Carter at Saratoga in 1833 when he defeated the Dwyer Brothers' crack Barnes for the United States Hotel Stakes. Barnes was a big favorite and what made it stronger he had McLaughlin on his back. An account of the race says that "Barnes and Drake Carter came into the home at etch locked together; a most terrific race to the finish resulted in a head victory for Carter." The distance, was a mile and a half and the time 2.38 showed that it was a desperate contest. Spellman has ridden for all the most prominent owners on the American turf, but of late years has seldom been seen in the saddle, having taken to the bottle. The past few years he has made his living by facing horses of his own, one of which was Strathspey, which he only recently sold to Mr. Wm. Hendrie of Hamilton. Spellman was well known in Toronto and is said to be about 33 years of age.]

Geasip of the Tark.

Mr. Charley Boyle, the well known trainer, is in the city, having came from Woodstock, where he atrived last Friday after a season's campaign. He brought with him Queen of Elizabeth and a 2-year-old filly, who have gone into winter quarters with the balance of Mr. Boyle's string at Woodstock.

Though the racing season is over, Trainer W. E. Owens is not idle, as anyone can see who visits Woodbine Park. At present he is busy giving the junior members of his stable, Baffig. Trapper and the 2-year-old filly Vichino their final gallops before the cold weather sets in. The filly is said to be a cracker, and yesterday ran a quarter in 24 seconds, which, at this time of the year, and considering the condition of the track, is excellent work. Baffie is also very fast, having covered a quarter in 24 seconds. Should the pair winter well Mr. Owens will have two good ones for the Guinesa.

Mr. W. I. Scott, one of the most prominent turimen in America, will sell his entire racing stable at auction on Dec. II, at Lexington, Ky. The string includes the 4-year-old Quito, the 3-year-olds Flagcoletta, Roi d'Or and Arundel, the 2-year-olds Tea Tray, Torchight and Satan, and nineteen head of yearlings.

A meeting of the directors of the Toronto Baseball Association was held last night in President Cox's office for the purpose of arranging the "ways and means" for running the club next season. Among other steps taken it was decided to issue season tickets at $10, good for admission to all games, which should ensure their ready sale.

President Cox will appoint Mr. C. W. Cushman of Buffalo as the International Association representative at the board of arbitration. man of Buffalo as the International Association representative at the board of arbitration meeting in Cincinnati next month, if the clubs in the Isagne decide to be represented, as they no doubt will. Mr. Cox has instructed Secretary White to ascertain the views of the clubs in record to the association being represented.

Jack Dempsey says that he will not accept any challenge from Pete McCoy and George Le Blands, or Denny Kelleher, until after the fight with Jonn Reagan.

Toff Wall, the middle-weight champion of England, after making a tour through England expects to leave for America in the latter part of December to fight Jack Dempsey for from $1000 to $2500 a side and the middle-weight championship of the world.

THE WREOK OF THE SCHOLTEN.

Over one Hundred Lives Were Lost by the Channel Collinion.

London, Nov. 23.—At the inquest on the recovered bodies of the victims of the W. A. Scholten disaster, the Rotterdam agent of the steamer testified that there were 214 persons aboard, of whom eighty-nine were saved. The body of Marcus Waser, one of the steer age passengers of the Scholten, was recovered to-day of Dover.

At the inquest to-day a steerage passenger named Hughes stated that he was picked up to the steer age to the Scholten, was recovered to-day of the Scholten, was recovered to the the the the the was thrown out that it would be rec

The Wreck a Dangerous Obstruction.

Leander, from Cadiz for Hamburg, struck Dover in a sinking condition. The channel has been crowded with vessels for the last few days. The wreck of the Scholten lies directly in the path of traffic, and a special lightship has been sent to replace the improvised one placed over the wreck.

A large audience greeted Mr. W. J. Florence at the Grand Opera House last night to witness his performance of Capt. Cuttle in "Dombey & Son," and a better pleased audience never left the house. Mr. Florence appeared at his very best and kept the audience in roars of laughter from the rise to the fall of the curtain. He was ably supported. Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Florence will appear is the new comedy entitled "The Flirt." This is said to his very best effort and has more than delighted the vast audiences wherever produced, Mrs. Florence sharing the honors with him. On Friday evening and at the Saturday matines the old favorite, "The Mighty Dollar" will be presented, Mr. and Mrs. Florence appearing at both performances. Saturday evening "Hombey & Son" will be the play, and I thank God for it; and if Bishop Cleary had been a married man and done what he ought to do he would be a better man than he is." [Roars of laughter]. His denial, saying he meant the "wives and women," made the matter worse, but he [the Doctor] was informed by a gentleman who was present that the statement was worse than reported. Had the Bishop married his heart would have been purer, his lips cleaner and his utterances more guarded and modest. [Applause.] Did he suppose that Canadians would take a slander like that from a foreigner—from Tipperary it may be—[laughter]—who presumed that he knew more than "the whole pack of us to gether?"

knew more than "the whole pack of us together?"

Dr. Wild then went into a detailed arraignment of the Romish Church, spoke of the criminality, illiteracy, illegitimacy of Catholic ountries, and described the struggles for supremacy. He was glad that Peter Ryan had taken His Lordship to task. All houest Catholics ought to take him up and tell him to "shut his mouth."

Freedom of conscience, liberty of speech, the power of the press, the public school system and a free state. [Roars of laughter.]

Speaking of the organized attack on the public schools, which commenced in the United States by official orders from Baltimors, Dr. Wild said: "I gless the Yankee and the Jesuit, and I think the Yankee and the Jesuit, and I think the Yankee will corner in him. The provincial conference proposes that all the subsidies to the provinces shall be increased, the total increase proposed being upwards of $1447,000. Ontarios share of the plunder is to be something over half a million yearly.

Now, it has long been an article of the Grit creed—one of the articles that Mr. Mowathinself is very fond of repealing—that Ontario pays three-fifths of all the taxation of the Dominion; and I rether think the Grits are not far astray in this calculation.

But if this be so, the three-fifths of the total increase of provincial subsidies will be paid by Ontario, and three-fifths of $1,447,000 is, as I figure it out, $368,200, so that under Mr. Mowathinself the provincial subsidies will be paid by Ontario, and three-fifths of $1,447,000 is, as I figure it out, $368,200, so that under Mr. Mowathinself the provincial subsidies will be paid by Ontario, and three-fifths of $1,447,000 is, as I figure it out, $368,200, so that under Mr. Mowathinself the provincial subsidies will be paid by Ontario, and three-fifths of $1,447,000 is, as I figure it out, $368,200, so that under Mr. Mowathinself the provincial subsidies will be paid by Ontario, and three-fifths of $1,447,000 is, as I figure it out, $368,200, so that under Mr. Mowathinself the provincial subsidies will be paid by Ontario, and three-fifths of $1,447,000 is, as I figure it out, $368,200, so that under Mr. Mowathinself the Carlton-street Methodst Clurch.
