

ALL LONDON IS LAUGHING.

PUNCH'S KEEN THIRST AHEAD AT SCOTLAND YARD.

Home Secretary Matthews Indignant—The Whitechapel Murderer Evidently a Keen Thirster.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Daily Telegraph has resumed its onslaught on Home Secretary Matthews and other papers are following its example. All London is roaring with laughter over a cartoon in the last number of Punch representing a blindfolded policeman searching criminals while unobtrusively dodging between their legs.

The cartoon is said to have aroused feelings of indignation in the breast of the Home Secretary, but the opinion is now general that the present Scotland Yard system of searching prisoners is a very good one.

The incident in the case of the woman found murdered in Whitechapel was renewed today. The evidence given by the witness confirmed the theory that the murderer is a skilled anatomist. It was shown that certain organs of the murdered woman were removed in a way that no one but an expert could have done, and the theory that the murder was committed by an anatomist is revived and finding many believers.

Sir Arthur Sullivan's new opera is entitled "The Tower" and will be produced on Oct. 10. The story of the scene being laid in Norway is untrue.

Commander Cameron contributes some interesting facts to the discussion concerning Bartolo's death. He defends the people of Manayona. When travelling in that country he found that the people, though cannibals, were brave, hospitable and courteous. They have a strong love for freedom, and a reluctance to travel. He thinks that if the Manayona tribes murdered Bartolo, they must have been with his caravan as slaves, or from his knowledge of his character he believes they would not have been there in any other capacity and they would not have any means of releasing their freedom.

Chadwick's Birmingham campaign, beginning in November, promises to be of importance. He has accepted an invitation for a public reception by the Mayor.

In response to the demand of the Scotch people for increased attention to their affairs, the Government will take an early opportunity of including the Scotch Secretary, Lord Lethlin, in the Cabinet.

There are rumors that the Prince of Wales intends to ask Parliament next November to make provision for his eldest son.

The group of Shakespearean figures presented by Lord Ronald Gower will be unveiled at Stratford next month by the Lord Lieutenant of Warwickshire.

Col. Mackenzie publishes two volumes of his operative reminiscences. They contain many interesting anecdotes.

CAN'T SLEEP!

Sleeplessness and fearful dreams are the earliest and surest signs of brain exhaustion. In healthy sleep brain force is being stored up to meet the next day's demands. But nowadays the nervous system has been so overtaxed that it is unable to control the mind, and at night the worries, troubles and work of the day are being replayed in the brain.

Since the brain has not time to re-energize itself, the result is a nervous system that is unable to control the mind, and at night the worries, troubles and work of the day are being replayed in the brain.
