LYNY, BEAR AND DEER STORIES.

Clawing the Bogs to Pieces—The King of Birds—Pienty of Bear, and Bear. Weedstock Sentinel-Review: On Wednes-day, when John Wilson and James Clark were hunsing rabbits in the swamp west of the farm belonging to Andrew Hall, Jr., North the fatth belonging to Andrew Hall, Jr., North Dumfries, she dogs raised a lyux, which running for a short distance took refuge in a tree. But as soon as the hunters came in eight is jumped off the tree and was quickly overtaken by the dogs, for which is was more than a match. It fought asvagely; disembowelling one of the dogs, it broke loose from the other two and ran southward in the direction of Ayr, followed by the two dogs. On reaching the south part of Burnett's farm it turned morshward along the banks of the river Nith, winning as far as Benjamin Schlichter's farm, then erosing the river on a jam of flood wood it struck westward for Alder creek awamp where the dogs lost the trail. The hunt was very exotting and lad it not been for the mishap which befell one of the dogs, a courageous hunter, the fiered animal would in all probability have been captured.

Dr. Coughlia purchased the bird, which is still alive, and will send it to a taxi-dermist to be duly prepared. Apart from its resity it is a magnificent specimen. From its great size it is judged to be a female; the length is 3 ft. 4 in., and the wings extend 7 ft. 5 in. from tip to tip. Its muscular legs ter-minate in powerful tees, which are armed with large, curved, sharp claws. The plumage is compact and glossy, the general color being dark hown slossed with purple.

The former is a large young dog, and enswers to the name of "Buidee;" has white underbody and dark task, nearly black, with two or three spots here and there. The top of his head is dark also. The bitch is a dark greyish or slate bursting on the holds, with black ground here.

The Parry Seund Star says that bears are tery sumerous in the district and that some very large animals have been killed. On Monday last a bear-out wandered into sown, and was attacked by Wm. R. Beatty with a sum of the second calculing it.
