There are in Canada many merchant princes who would willingly give a handsome percentage of their wealth if they were guaranteed a lease of health and a few years more of life on earth. In their present condition they are aware that they have much hope held cut to them of long years. In their desire for riches, fame and position they have become almost physically wrecked. We pity some of them as we gaze on their sallow, thin faces, their sunken eyes, their nervous twitchings, their trembling hands and unsteady faltering steps. They are also suffering mentally. The brain has become weak and clouded, the memory is failing and they are tortured by headaches, and fear that something dreadful is about to happen. This state of suffering has been brought on by overtaxing the mental and physical powers; and mark well, sufferers, unless you find relief from the true remedy look out for paresis, paralysis and dread linearity. The Harriers The members of the well-known Ranelagh Harriers' Club of London, Eng., know what Harriers' Club of London, Eng., know what is best when one writes like the following. Mr. W. F. Jefferies, member of the club, says: "I find St Jacobs Oil the best remedy I have ever used for sprains, stiffness and bruises. It quickly removes pains and swellings, and if rubbed into the muscles it will be found of great benefit to all athletes. Lmay also add that several friends of mine have found the oil a cure for rheumatism and neural gia."

Honeymoon in a Canoe, In St. Peter's Church yesterday afternoon Miss Alice Grundy was married to Rev. Cecil C. Owen, assistant "minister of St. Peter's Church, by assistant minister of St. Peter's Church, by Archdeacon Boddy assisted by the groom's brother. After the ceremony the Lord's Supper was partaken of, while the crowd of spectators stood in front of the church waiting for the appearance of the happy couple. In this they were disappointed, for they escaped by a side entrance to the school-house, where a short reception was given to the friends. The school-house was artistically decorated with flowers. Then they departed for Kingston, from which point they, intend to make a canoe voyage down the St. Lawrence. They will visit Hon. S. H. Blake at Cacouna, P.Q., and will return home about July 16. The congregation of St. Peter's Church furnished a house for the young folks and presented them a purse of $500.
