This evening at this popular house Mr. J. H. Wallick will present his latest success, "The Mountain King." He enacts the role of a detective, who so ingratiates himself in the good graces of the moonshiners that he is eventually chosen as their leader. While acting in that capacity he learns of the murder of his father years before in Chicago, by one of the members of the band of outlaws, and also that a poor blind girl with them is his sister, abducted at the same time. The denouement consists in the capture of the entire gang, and the suddens shock consequent upon this episode suddenly restores the sight of the unhappy sister, resulting in a very touching recognition on her part of her brother. The various situations are thrilling, and each act terminates with a dramatic climax—a veritable curtain-raiser in fact.

The Yarksitav evening Mr. Wallick will change

Advice Free.

Meep the head cool, the feet warm and the bowels regular and no disease can attack you. This is a celebrated German physician's advice, and can best be accomplished by using Burdock Blood Bitters, the best regulator and purifier known. It cures all disorders of the stomach, liver, bowels and blood.

A lady writes: "I was enabled to remove the corns, root and branch, by Holloway's Corn Cure." Others who have tried it have the same experience.
