Will you be one of the 108 farmers who will receive our Prize Contest checks?

THERE will be twelve cash prizes in each of the nine provinces (108 in all) in the 1912 Prize Contest for Canadian Farmers. The 1911 Contest was so successful in awakening interest in the use of Concrete on the farm, that a second contest, in which three times as many prizes are offered, was decided upon for this year.

The Contest this year is divided into three classes, "A," "B," and "C," and there will be four prizes in each class. (First prize, $50; Second prize, $25; Third prize, $15; Fourth prize, $10.) Thus there are three $50 Prizes, three $25 Prizes, three $15 prizes, and three $10 Prizes, for each province.

DESCRIPTION OF CLASSES

In Each Class there will be First, Second, Third and Fourth Prizes ($50, $25, $15, and $10) for Each Province.

CLASS "A"—Prizes to be awarded to the four farmers in each province who use most "Canada" Cement on their farms in the year 1912.

CLASS "B"—Prizes to be awarded to the four farmers in each province who send photographs of the best concrete work done with "Canada" Cement on their farms in 1912.

CLASS "C"—Prizes to be awarded to the four farmers in each province who send in the best description, telling how any piece of concrete work was done with "Canada" Cement. (Entries for this prize must be accompanied by photographs of the work.)

Don't think that you must use a large quantity of cement in order to win a prize. The quantity of cement used does not count in Classes "B" and "C." Many of last year's prize winners used very little cement.

When you enter the Contest, you have a chance to win a cash prize of $50 as well as the certainty that you will add a permanent improvement to your farm. If you haven't a copy, be sure and ask for our book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete." It will not only suggest many improvements that you can use in entering the Contest, but will tell you all about the use of concrete on the farm.

Just write your name and address on the attached coupon, or use a postal card, and we will send full particulars of the Prize Contest and a copy of "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete" to you absolutely free.

Change of Business

Watford, June 14th, 1912.

Mr. Thomas Dodds desires to notify his customers and the public generally that he has taken his son Claremon Dodds into partnership with him in the Hardware, Furnace and Tinsmith business, and that the business in future will be conducted under the name of T. Dodds & Son.

Mr. Claremon Dodds is a thoroughly practical man, understanding every branch of the business, and has made a special study of the Furnace and Tinsmithing branch, so that customers will have the advantage of expert knowledge when an order is placed with this firm.

The new firm takes this opportunity of soliciting a continuance of the liberal patronage extended to the old firm. All orders entrusted to them will receive the most careful and prompt attention.

All accounts owing the old firm of T. Dodds must be paid without further notice so that the books may be closed as soon as possible.

THE BLUE DANUBE.

A Wonderful River That Links the Orient and the Occident.

Where is there another river so international as the Danube? It rises in Baden and flows through Wurttemberg and Bavaria; nearly half its length lies in Austria-Hungary; then it separates the latter country and Servia. At Orsova three nationalities meet—Hungarians, Servians and Roumanians. After that it serves as a boundary between Roumania and Bulgaria, and its mouth lies in Roumanian territory. As one passes from source to mouth strange sounds greet the ear. First, high German dialects, as Alemanic, Suabian and Bavarian; then the language of the proud sons of Arpad, the Magyars; then the Serb and Roumanian and Bulgarian tongues. The management of the river-improvement shows the number and variety of the interests. An international commission undertook the deepening of one of the delta channels, and a joint commission of the riparian states removed the dangers of the rapids.

The scenery along the Danube is as varied as the people that dwell on its banks. There are stretches whose beauty rivals that of the picturesque parts of the castled Rhine; then comes the monotony of the wide plain; then it breaks once more through mountain chains and again the scene is wild and beautiful.

There is more of the beautiful Blue Danube connected with Austria-Hungary than with any other state, and this river and its tributaries cement the heterogeneous parts of that composite country more naturally and more firmly than laws and treaties can. Far more freight is moved on the Danube than in and out of the Austrian Adriatic ports, so that in spite of the possession of a strip of coast the monarchy may be called an inland state. Unfortunately for this Government, the all important Danube slips from it by flowing far beyond the borders of the land, yet it has even in politics a directing influence. The eyes of Austrian statesmen are turned eastward. Economically and politically the Danube is of such dominating significance to Austria-Hungary that it has been suggested that this conglomerate state be called not the dual monarchy, but the Danubian monarchy.

The Danube was the scene of Roman colonization, of the fierce inroads of the migration of the Huns, the Avars and the Magyars; of the advance of the crusaders to the east, of that of the Turks toward the West, and more recently of the growth of the house of Hapsburg and of the disintegration of the Ottoman realm. What causes this frequent reference in history to the Danube and its valley? A glance at the map will account for it. Stretching from the headwaters of the Rhine, the Rhone, the Elbe, and the Oder to the Black Sea, the Danube forms and for ages has formed the connecting link between the orient and the occident.

One Man Colliery.
 There is at least one coal mine in Britain that was not affected by the strike. It is in that out-of-the-world spot known as Rainow, near Macclesfield. This colliery is a curiosity, being leased by one man, who performs all the duties necessary between getting the coal and the actual burning of it. He himself gets the coal, descending into the mine down a sloping shaft, at the head of which there is a water-wheel, by which the coal is drawn to the surface. The same man loads the coal on to his own lorry, hitches it to his own horse, and proceeds to call "Coal!" through the neighboring district.

Putting it to Work.
 When the train stopped at the little southern station the northern tourist sauntered out on the platform, says The Housekeeper. Under a scrub oak stood a lean animal with scraggy bristles. The tourist was interested. "What do you call that?" he inquired of a lanky native.
 "Razorback hawg."
 "Well, what is he doing rubbing against that tree?"
 "He's stropping himself, mister; jest stropping himself."

Her Concession.
 "How do you know she's older than you are?"
 "Why, she admitted it herself."
 "Honestly? What did she say?"
 "She said, 'You and I are just the same age, dearie.'"

Better Still.
 Oletimer—Is your married life one grand, sweet song?
 Newlywed—Well, since our baby's been born it's been like an opera, full of grand marches, with loud calls for the author every night.—Tit-Bits.

Use the safe, pleasant and effectual worm killer, Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. nothing equals it. Procure a bottle and take it home.

She Provided a Substitute.

A very pretty young woman had been asked to dinner by the mother of a young man who admired her very much. While waiting for dinner to be announced the four-year-old niece of the young man came into the room and climbed into the lap of her uncle, of whom she seemed very fond.

The young lady said coaxingly, "Come, Mary, give me a kiss." But the child hid her face on her uncle's arm. The young woman urged the child to come to her, saying again, "Won't you give me a kiss?"

The little girl said, "No, I don't want to." Then she brightened up and said, "Uncle Fred, you do it."

Russia's Royal Train.

The Russian royal special train is the heaviest and the most luxurious in Europe. When it was constructed it was devised to stand a charge of dynamite, and it cannot be taken fast over most of the European lines because their rails are too light. The train contains a chapel, a library, bathrooms, drawing room, dining room and bedrooms. The servants' quarters are at the rear and consist simply of an ordinary vanlike carriage arranged with sleeping bunks as if on board ship. The train is so made that it can be changed to fit the Russian or the mid-European gauge.

Tobacco Antedated America.

At Cawdor Castle there is an old carved mantelpiece the figure of a fox with a pipe (quite distinct) in his mouth. The mantelpiece is said to be of considerably earlier date than that of the introduction of tobacco into the country—a fact, if so it be, which must have struck many as passing strange.

Too Much Lumber.

Mr. Carney, new timber inspector of the district of British Columbia, bounded by the Okanagan water shed, states that the dumping of American lumber has made the prospects for the coming season dull. He says 300,000,000 feet have been thrown in the prairie market by United States manufacturers.

Natural.

"I say, I have just come from my landlord's, and would you believe it, I had the greatest difficulty in the world to get him to accept a little money."

"Nonsense! And why, pray?"

"Because he wanted a lot."

Kindness to Animals.

Don't be discouraged because you see so many unkind things being done, says Our Dumb Animals. Just keep on being actively kind to animals yourself and the number who follow your example will continually grow.

Ferdybody's Gams.

Figeems hovering about the London streets are everybody's prey; for, having no owners, the police say that they cannot and will not take action against any person killing the birds.

Mary Was Right.

"There's no coal left in the cellar, ma'am."
 "Why didn't you tell me before, Mary?"
 "Because there was some, ma'am."
 —London Punch.

Value of Time.

Know the true value of time; snatch, seize and enjoy every moment of it—no idleness, no laziness, no procrastination. Never put off until to-morrow what you can do to-day.—Lord Chesterfield.

Why, Indeed.

"Why, oh, why," remarked the observer of events and things, "will a woman smile with delight when she sees a hat in a milliner's window and frown when she sees the same hat on her neighbor's head?"

Aide to Gordon.

Major Henry Octavius Brown, who was at one time A.D.C. to "Chinese" Gordon, and who received from the Chinese Government the rare order of the Imperial Dragon, died recently in New Westminster, aged 74 years.

Death to Dandruff Germs

Life to all Hair

No More Dandruff. Falling Hair, Scalp Itch, Bald Heads or Dull Faded Hair.

This is a free country. It's your right, your privilege to use any hair tonic you desire.

But why continue to use a hair tonic that doesn't do what it should do: kill the germs and banish all dandruff and hair troubles?

If you have dandruff, if your hair is getting thin and falling out, if your scalp itches and your hair isn't bright and lustrous, bear in mind this fact: that PARISIAN SAGE, now sold all over America, is guaranteed by T. B. Taylor & Son, to give the limit of satisfaction if used for any of the above hair or scalp troubles or money back.

PARISIAN SAGE is the most delightful and refreshing hair dressing for men, women and children, and is particularly in demand by refined women who desire to increase their beauty by acquiring an abundance of fascinating hair, full of life and lustre.

A large bottle of PARISIAN SAGE costs but 50 cents at T. B. Taylor & Son, and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every carton and bottle.
