

to reap it.' Our stout-hearted Sister Verena, however, told her to take courage: "We will cut it and carry it ourselves." So we did, and in CHURCH-CHAPEL AT NEUDINGEN.

thirteen days, by St. Dominic's Eve, we had brought the whole crop into the convent.'

"In the brief intervals between the various wars the little town of Engen