or the five pounds you owe me; for he has paid me every farbing he owed me, and all in less than two years.' On entering a cuse about a mile further, I was informed that the tract I had brown, two years before, into a poor man's house, had made him nother man. At length I arrived at the village. when very hard at me, and said, 'Are you not the man who sold a some tracts about two years ago?' I said I was. Then she You must go with me to the house where you threw the tract and I am quite sure the woman will not let you go to hell now. soon as I entered, the woman informed her I was the old man te so much wished to see. She cried out, 'What! that dear an who threw in the tract?' and, running, she took hold of my and, and said, 'I humbly beg your pardon for what I said; I was a passion, and very vile and wicked.' She bade me sit down to mer, and said her husband would be there in a few minutes. on as he came in, she told him who I was. He took me very ally by the hand, and said, 'Blessed was that hour when you rew the tract into my house, and thrice blessed is that God who rected you to one so wicked. I was then poor and wretched; ent most of my time in the ale-house; but now, thank God! we a house of my own, and it is my delight to talk of the goodss of that God which directed me to the reading of the tract."

RECTIONS FOR THE OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

1. Order all your weekly business so wisely beforehand, that umay have no unnecessary work on God's day; that your hands y be as free as possible from business, and your head from ildly cares and thoughts.

2. Think seriously: what a weighty work am I going about! week affairs are but toys and trifles to this. What are sheep loxen, or shops and goods, to grace, Christ, and heaven? I be too careful and serious in God's work? in the work of salvan! Surely no. How holy should my thoughts be, how heavenly my tourse, how earnest my endeavours all the day long!

B. Therefore prepare with all your might; search your heart

life: find out

What your sins are, to confess, mourn over, and pray against.
What the mercies are you want for soul or body; for your ads, family, and nation.

What blessings you have received, and what thanks should be rned.
