

Canadian dentistry ought to be paramount. The success of a Canadian dental College: of Canadian dental societies: of a Canadian dental journal, ought to be received with personal delight. What claim could we have to recognition and an aspiring and progressive profession if we had to depend entirely upon the schools, the societies and the journals of our kindly neighbours? Would not any dentist in any city, town or village of this Dominion, feel personally ashamed if his patients reproached the Canadian profession with negligence in these matters?

It is impossible to conduct a journal to please everybody, but everybody can give us advice; and anybody who sees scope for improvement, will confer a favor, only second to the remittance promptly of past and present subscriptions, by writing his convictions to the editor.

Volume Two.

This number begins a new volume. The Dominion of Canada, as an integral and important part of the greatest empire in the world, is fully awake to its material and political possibilities. The dental profession in such a country cannot afford to be without a home journal. The DOMINION DENTAL JOURNAL, belongs to the Canadian profession.

Help or Hinder.

Which do you intend to do? This Journal is not published to push the business interests of its proprietor, or the professional success of its editor. They are both perfectly independent of any such collateral necessity for attracting notice. Somebody must risk something, and somebody must sacrifice time if Canada is to have at least one Dental journal. The publisher risks his money, and the editor freely gives his time. Now, do you not think, "gentle reader," you have also a personal and professional interest in helping, by your subscription, by your advocacy, by your contribution of hints and more elaborate papers, and by your advice. Tell us just what you would do if you were editor, and do not be backward in giving advice, for we feel every day the need of it.

Of course there are other journals, richly endowed by wealthy business firms, better than this one. But this one is the only one in Canada. It could easily sell its independence to-morrow for
