A MAGNIFICENT PRESENT!

The proprietors of the Sporting Times have much pleasure in announcing to their patrons that they have made arrangements o present a magnificent horse picture to their advance paying subscribers for the year 1876-7. Realizing the importance of this undertaking, and being determined to offer our subscribers a picture that should in itself be worthy of the paper it represents, and which should be treasured as a work of art; after culling over the finest productions of the American press, we selected the beauby 24 inches, believing, as our friends will when they see it, that it is the finest horse picture ever published in America. It is not to be confounded with the miserable pictures hawked around the country by some jour-nals, but is really a work of high art, and in-trinsically of more value than we receive for our yearly subscription. She is re-presented standing in a box stall stripped, and in this position the picture, from which the chromo is reproduced, was painted by one of the first artists in the profession in. America. When varnished and mounted it is impossible to distinguish between the chrome and a very fine oil-painting. It is a work of art worthy of a place in the finest collectio.. in the country, and what adds to its value is the only dryrect likeness of Gold-suith M and ever published. As a memento of the mo stremarkable trotting equine in-the world, shortly to be relegated from the turf, it will be treasured by every horseman in the country, more especially by those who have seen the little mare in any of her races. This picture was sold by subscription only a few months ago for $5 a piece, and copies of it were in great demand. We expect in this liberal gift to more than double our subscription list in the next three months, and if our friends who receive the picture will only show it to their acquaintances and inform them how they may get a copy, we are sure our anticipations will be realized. The picture can be procured in no other way; we do not sell it; and only give it to those who remit Yearly in advance for the Sponting Times.

To meet the wishes of a number of our patrons who might desire the picture of a horse in action in preference to a still one like our Chrome of Goldsmith Maid, as a premium, we have selected the next most remarkable trotting celebrity in the world in lier greatest race. Wo refer to Luck at Rochester, N. Y., October 14th, 1875, in her now noted match against Time. The picture is 224 by 28 inchest, being largest than ture is. 221 by 28 inches, being larger than that of The Mard, and is a fine specimen of the pictorial art. It is not claimed to possess the nigh artistic value of the latter, but still on account of being larger and in action, with a portrait of Mr. Chas. Green, the driver of Lulla, and a view of the Rochester, N. Y., Driving Park, Judges' Stand, &c., the stables, &c., being seen in the distance, width the professed by mount at the stable. might be preferred by many to the other. . We desire to accommodate our patrons to the fullest extent. All advance paying subscribers for the year 1876-7, and none others, are entitled to their choice of those pictures.
