CHICAGO MARKET.

BULLS FOLLOW UP ADVANTAGES AFTER WEAK OPENINGS — LIVERPOOL QUOTATIONS IMPROVE ON THE FIRST. FOREIGN DEMAND SMALL.

Chicago, Sept. 13.

Quotations from European markets and primary receipts well over a million had an influence no way favorable to bullish aims, also the 1¼ million increase in visible supply strengthened bearish efforts. A rally on shorts might have pressed up prices had not the tone of the market been heavy and speculation kept between too narrow limits. Supply of new wheat to all appearance is adequate for existing demand while there is from abroad report of sufficient crop and of markets from this cause grown somewhat weaker. Holdings on foreign account also are said to show large losses. Government report has not made much impression and foreign conditions of a political nature have almost dropped out of sight as an influence. Accordingly openings to-day were almost all lower, wheat ½, corn ¼, oats ¼. Provisions, too, though less subject to such influence, was some cents weaker. The higher Liverpool quotation at a later hour gave the initial impulse to a vigorous attack on the shorts and in September wheat as indeed in all classes of wheat, grain and pro- The strength was not spread equally, so that some spots might even have been called weak, but the general character was strong. In its transactions there was a speculative spirit prepared to press advantages to their utmost limit.

At Liverpool wheat was ½ lower, corn ¼ lower, the former weak, the latter steady. A later quotation showed an advance in both. Of provisions received, of hogs, 26,000; cattle, 17,000; sheep, 21,000. In the Union Market, Kansas, 9,000 hogs; cattle, 12,000. Omaha, hogs, 6,000; cattle, 8,000.

Last week primary receipts, 968,373; shipments, 542,270; whereas last year receipts were 1,102,291, and shipments, 951,422.

Car lots received, wheat, 197; shipments, 49,950; corn, 598; shipments, 12,356; oats, 250; shipments, 23,691.
