

Well Made.

Pure flour and pure yeast do not necessarily mean good bread. It may be spoiled in the making. Just so; material is not everything. Prof. W. Hodgson Mills, Official Analyst to the Dominion Government, after a number of analyses, reports that "Sunlight Soap is a pure and well-made soap."

THE MARKET REPORTS.

Wheat is Weaker—The Live Stock Trade—Latest Quotations. Tuesday Evening, Sept. 23.

Toronto St. Lawrence Market. The receipts of grain and other farm products on the local street market to-day were quite liberal considering the fact that the farmers have been in the field for some time at this season. Prices were generally steady for grain, eggs, butter and poultry.

There was a good demand for nearly all classes of stock at the Toronto Cattle Market to-day and the market was well supported. The market was heavy and a great many poor cattle were offered. Everything was sold, however, the only exception being the heavy grades. Prices held steady in most cases and few changes are to be noted.

Export Cattle—Old country markets are reported easier and there was a slightly easier tone in the trading here. The volume of business was not so large as in previous weeks and the market was not very active.

HAMILTON WEDDING.

Hamilton, Sept. 2.—At St. Lawrence's Church this morning Rev. Father Brady performed the ceremony which united in marriage Mr. Archie F. McGowan to Miss Minnie C. Kavanagh, both of this city. The bridesmaid was Miss Maggie Kavanagh, sister of the bride, and the groomsmen were Joseph J. Harris. The bride was charmingly gowned in white serge and the bridesmaid was becomingly gowned in green with chiffon trimmings. After the ceremony, which was witnessed by a very large crowd, a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, 525 North Catharine street, after which the guests retired to the lawn, where a musical programme was rendered. Such well known artists took part as Misses Maggie Kavanagh, L. Callahan, N. O'Neill, Misses Nellie, Grace and Lily Kenny, Thomas J. Murphy, P. J. McGowan, Thomas Kavanagh. The young couple left for Montreal and eastern points. They will reside in the city.

MARRIED IN THE IRISH TONGUE

A marriage of unique interest was celebrated in the Catholic Church, Dockhead, London, last week, when for the first time in England for several hundred years the ceremony was performed in the Irish tongue. The parties were Mr. John O'Keane, who for the past three years has acted as hon. secretary to the London Gaelic League, and Miss Kathleen Dinneen, a young lady very popular in Gaelic circles here, where her singing of Irish songs has been much appreciated. The celebrant on the occasion was the Rev. M. Moloney, also a prominent member of the Gaelic League in London, and those present at the ceremony included almost every leading worker in the language movement here. Except in those portions where Latin is strictly prescribed by the Church, the service was conducted entirely in Irish.

A LAY BROTHER MISSIONARY.

One of the humble history-makers of the Canadian Northwest is the Oblate Lay Brother Gillet, who has spent over 35 years in voluntary banishment from civilization, in the St. Peter's Mission on the shores of Reindeer Lake. For 20 years there he never tasted white bread; the last 15 years he has been able to procure three sacks of flour a year. He is a typical Missioner's assistant, very handy at all sorts of trades, and full of ingenious resources. At a time when there was no grain at the Mission, and fresh eggs made a rigidly repast, he contrived to keep several hens laying during eleven months, with nothing but roast fish to give them. The Indians thereabouts are the Montagnais or Denes, whose language is extremely difficult, totally different from the Cree, or any other Algonic tongue. The Esquimaux visit there sometimes, and the Brother has educated and trained an Esquimaux boy who now speaks several languages and is very useful to the Mission.—Antigonish Casket.

In the development of the fraction "one-third" in a primary class, Irregular cakes, pies and bread galore had been divided into thirds, and the teacher gave the following problem: "If Mary found a nest with six eggs in it, and on the way to the house broke two of them, what part of her eggs would she break?" The owner of a sparkling pair of eyes and fluttering hand was given permission to speak and answered promptly, "The whole."

CATHOLIC TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT

Editor Catholic Register: I read with much interest in your last week's issue the able editorial headed "To Work," and those two words were indeed most aptly chosen. And it was with great pleasure that I read that The Register was receiving words of encouragement and appreciation for the stand it has taken in this important movement, for I cannot but sometimes think that many of our Catholic people fail to appreciate the efforts made and put forth for their betterment by an able Canadian Catholic press, and that we fail to give our Catholic papers that support which they deserve. Your strong appeal for a leader to come forth and lead the Catholic Temperance Canadian Army will surely touch and reach the heart of some one capable of filling that high and noble position, as you truly say: "There never has been a time when the opportunity did not call forth a leader." And it is an undeniable fact that we do need a leader in this proposed Catholic Temperance Movement, and as a humble member of the rank and file of the Catholic Church, I have every confidence that that leader will be found either in our beloved Bishops or priests, for no one more than they know the need of, and the good that cannot but come from a race of temperance men and women. As you say, Cardinal Moran is now preaching the good cause in Ireland, who, among us, will follow his example and preach it in Canada? Might I venture to suggest the name of him who has been so successful at Peterborough, the Rev. Dr. O'Brien, for owing to his success there, and at the recent conference of Catholic international temperance workers, his name is to-day a household word in many Catholic homes all over Canada, and is held in the highest esteem and respect by many who a short time ago did not know of him, the writer included.

There are to-day, Mr. Editor, among the Catholic clergy of this Province many able, bright, pious, holy and brilliant men, quite capable of leading to success this movement. Many thousands of Catholic laymen, fathers of families and others, are waiting and anxious to see it started. Many thousands of others are no doubt indifferent about it, but all must admit that naught but good can come of it, for as you truly say, in the editorial referred to: "The cause of temperance is at present neglected." Come forth then we say, ye men capable of being leaders—and lead us on—pardon me, if I repeat what I stated in a former letter: "The harvest is great, but the reapers are few."

ASK THE PAINTERS

What They Use for Backache, Kidney Pains and Stomach Troubles Common to Their Trade. Many Say Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills On account of the continual strain of reaching, stooping and twisting the body, the painter frequently suffers from backache and kidney pains. Then along with this the breathing of poison from the paints tends to upset the digestive organs and derange the kidneys, liver and bowels. You scarcely meet a painter who does not suffer more or less from these ailments, and very many of them have learned that no treatment is so prompt in removing their troubles as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Mr. B. H. Barnaby, painter in the D.R.A. shops, Kentville, N. S., states: "I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for a number of years, whenever I would get constipated and suffer from kidney pains and derangements of the digestive system, and know of many others who have also used them for similar troubles. I can join with others in pronouncing them an excellent medicine. When constipated I find one pill sufficient to set me right, and am never without a box of these pills in the house. I consider them the best medicine I ever used." Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
