Dwyer & Doherty, Proprietors.

THIS favourite hotel, so long and successfully conducted by Mr. James O'Donohue, having recently passed into the hands of Mr. M. P. Doherty, for the past eleven years connected with the Rossin House, and Mr. William Dwyer they beg respectfully to solicit the patronage of the clergy and others. The high standard which the Club Chambers has always maintained as a first-class private hotel for men only will be continued under the present management; and the personal superintendence of Mr. Doherty no effort will be spared to render it worthy of the confidence and popularity hitherto extended to it. The house is now being thoroughly renovated and put in order for the summer season. Rooms with or without board at reasonable rates.
