

Belshazzar

A Tale of the Fall of Babylon

By WM. STEARNS DAVIS

Author of "God Wills It."

Illustrations by LEE WOODWARD ZIGLER

Decorations by J. E. LAUB

BELSHAZZAR is a superbly dramatic and picturesque romance of Babylon and its Hanging Gardens. The story turns upon the Writing on the Wall, one of the most dramatic events of history. This novel will be one of the most talked-of books of the year. CLOTH, $1.25.

A Speckled Bird

By AUGUSTA EVANS WILSON

Author of "St. Elmo," "Infelice," "Vashti," "At the Mercy of Tiberius," Etc.

It is sixteen years since the publication of Mrs. Wilson's last novel, "At The Mercy of Tiberius." More than a million copies of her works have been sold. This new story may challenge comparison with any previous work from the author's pen, and lose nothing in verve, feeling or fancy; while on the other hand there is a gain in breadth of view which brings this remarkable woman quite into touch with the present time and the things that have occupied the thinking world since she last laid down her pen. CLOTH ONLY, $1.25
