President Cleveland has nominated Mr. Edwin F. Uhl, of Michigan, to be Ambassador to Germany.

Dr. Smale, of Toronto University, exhibited several fine photographs taken by Rontgen's ray at a meeting of the Canadian Institute on Saturday evening.

Sir Joseph Trutch, ex-Governor of British Columbia, sailed on Saturday for Europe. He stated that the salmon canning industry of that Province exceeds three million dollars a year.

The congregation of the leading Presbyterian Church at North Sydney have almost boycotted the minister, Rev. Dr. Murray, because of his effusive welcome to Sir Charles Tupper.

Mr. L. S. Lundy, of Lundy's Lane, is dead, at the age of 77 years. He was a Justice of the Peace and was the last survivor of the family of the late Thomas Lundy, and grandson of Mr. William Lundy, after whom the famous battle ground was named.

New York District Attorney Fellows recently endorsed the papers which, when signed by Justice Smyth, of the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court, will dismiss the indictment upon which Erastus Wiman was held and convicted of having forged the signature of E. W. Bullinger to a cheque for five thousand dollars.

Periodicals.

The Critical Review for January is of the same high character as its predecessors, but this month it appeals to a somewhat highly educated class of readers, although there is a good deal which ordinary people can understand. We can recommend to such the excellent article on Dr. Moore's Commentary on Judges, on Smith's Bishop Heber, on Glog's Introduction to the Synoptic Gospel's, etc. But there is one article which is nothing short of alarming, that on Robinson's "The Saviour in the Newer Light." The "newer light" is simple Rationalism, which rejects the whole supernatural character of the Christian Revelation. A very just and favourable review is given of Dr. Watson's Hedonistic Theories.

The Expository Times for February is an unusually good number of an excellent publication. Both the longer articles, and the notes are first rate. We have a good article by Prof. W. T. Davis on the Theology of the Psalms, the first of a series; An Archaeological Commentary on the Book of Genesis, by Prof. A. H. Sayce; a notice of Professor Sanday, by Mr. Bartlett of the Congregational College at Oxford, etc. The notes are of unusual interest, dealing with the question of evolution in a very remarkable manner, especially in regard to the late Professor Romanes and his restoration to the Christian faith. We are glad to see that Messrs T. & T. Clark's promised Dictionary of the Bible is in preparation, and may soon be expected.

The complete novel in the February issue of Lippincott's is "Ground-swells," by Mrs. Jeanette H. Walworth. It is a tale of rather unusual length (for the Magazine), readable, lively, and "up-to-date." The scene is in New York city, and the heroine is, or tries to be, a New Woman. Dr. Harvey B. Bashore gives an interesting epitome of the furthest researches of geology in a rapid sketch of "The First Days of the World." "The Aerial Monasteries of Greece" are described by Charles Robinson. James Knapp Reeve writes of "What Men Drink." E. S. F. gives some account of "Domestic Service on the Pacific Slope" and the difficulties thereof. "The Child and his Fictions" is a pleasant and suggestive paper by Elizabeth Ferguson Seat. Frederic M. Bird points out certain "Paralyzers of Style," some of which are intended to have a precisely opposite effect, while some are the result of mere carelessness. The poetry of the number is by Joseph Wharton, Charles G. D. Roberts, and Clinton Scollard.
