THE WEEK

A JOURNAL FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

BOOKS FOR THE SUMMER.

Pearls and Pebbles; or Notes of an Old Naturalist. By Mrs Catharine Parr Traill, with Biographical Sketch of the author by Mary Agnes FitzGibbon. Frontispiece portrait and Illustrations. $1.50.

"Mrs. Traill has earned the gratitude of Canadians, not only by exciting an interest abroad in Canadian life, but by directing the attention of our own people to the aspects of nature in this country, and the higher lessons which they teach."

Cot and Cradle Stories. By Mrs. Traill. Illustrated by A. Dickson Patterson, R.C.A. $1.00.

"I read the tales before meeting the dear old author, and was charmed with the simplicity and freshness of them. In purest and most direct English, Mrs. Traill tells of the butterflies, birds and bees. She brings all the beauty of our Canadian woodlands about us, so that while we read we are really among the pretty creatures, all in the sunshine of a Summers day."

How to Know the Wild Flowers. A guide to the names, haunts and habits of our common wild flowers. By Mrs. W. S. Dana. Copiously Illustrated. $1.75.

"Talks About the Wild Flowers" Series. By Uncle Matt. Illustrated.

A Stroll on a Marsh in Search of Wild Flowers. 50c.

Down the Lane and Back in Search of Wild Flowers. 50c.

Across the Common after Wild Flowers. 50c.

Around a Cornfield in a Ramble after Wild Flowers. 50c.

Through the Copse. Another Ramble after Wild Flowers. 50c.

Birds of Ontario. A concise account of every species of bird known to have been found in Ontario, with a description of their nests and eggs. By Thomas McIlwraith. Illustrated.

"It is with great pleasure we welcome this valuable handbook, revised to date, much enlarged, and in a dress more befitting its scientific importance and popular interest. As ornithologists well know, the author of 'Birds of Ontario' is well equipped for his task, and, as would be expected, has done his work well." -The Auk.

Canadian Wild Flowers. By Mrs. Chamberlin. With Botanical description by Mrs. Traill. Embellished by 10 full-page plates of native wild flowers, drawn and coloured by hand by Mrs. Chamberlin. FOURTH EDITION. Bound in extra English cloth, with floral design and title in gold. Price, $6.00.

The Marquis of Lansdowne, in a letter to Mrs. Chamberlin, writes: "Will you allow me to take this opportunity of expressing the great pleasure with which I examined your beautiful botanical drawings. They have given me an idea of the flora of the country which no amount of description could have created in my mind."

Ants and Their Ways. By the Rev. W. Farren White, M.A. With numerous Illustrations, and a Complete List of Genera and Species of the British Ants. New Cheap Edition. Cloth, 90c.

Ponds and Rock Pools. With hints on collecting for, and the Management of Micro-Aquarium, By Henry Scherren. With Illustrations. Cloth, 90c.
